MOUNT CARMEL SCHEDULES OPEN HOUSE FOR JUNE 10

By Mildred Smith

Mount Carmel Methodist Church has scheduled June 10 for open house when visitors and members are invited to see the new educational wing and repairs to the sanctuary. The hours will be from 4 to 6 p.m.

In charge of arrangements will be Mrs. Hazel Norman, chairman, Mrs. Hattie McLaney and Mrs. Betty Jean Alford.

The new wing, built during the past year, will provide classrooms, a kitchen, rest rooms, and additional auditorium space. One of the former Sunday School rooms at the front of the church has been remodeled into a study and office for the pastor. Another classroom and the vestibule have been remodeled and redecorated, the sanctuary is being repainted and new light fixtures are being installed.

Bob A. Guy has served as chairman of the building committee and other members are Tom Alford and Shackelford Scaife.

The annual revival is scheduled for June 18-22, with services daily at 7:45 p.m. by the Rev. Asa Boozer, pastor of McCann's Chapel in Jackson.

The church will have its family camp at Blue Lake June 16-17.

Mose Sellers, official board chairman, will represent the Mount Carmel church at the annual Alabama-West Florida Conference. According to the annual report, the church has 139 members, 12 of whom were received in the past year. There is an average attendance of 63 at Sunday School and 80 for preaching services. All conference and district requests have been paid in full, and Mount Camel was one of three churches in the Troy district to accept and pay its quota in full for higher education. During the conference year the church has paid out $10,000, and the value of the property has been doubled.

The pastor is the Rev. Edwin Sells.

JOTTINGS: Iva Kate Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Hall of Snowdown, was featured in the Lipscomb Patrons Association annual fashion show May 17 at David Lipscomb College in Nashville where she is a freshman . . .
