

July 1, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

Thirty-eight members and former members of 4-H Clubs were guests of honor at an informal party given Thursday afternoon at Pine Level School auditorium by the Smilietown Community Club. Miss Hazel Jackson, recreational director of the Montgomery County relief committee was in charge of the entertainment and led the girls in a series of rhythmic games and dances. Punch and sandwiches were served by the hostess club. The 4-H girls present were: Frances Howard Sullivan, Ethel Milligan, Eleanor Gardner, Lillie Mae Reynolds, Lucile Chancey, Frances Chancey, Eleanor Barfoot, Flora Bell Hocks, Marjorie McMoy, Mae Guice, Gladys Bozeman, Laura Mae Riley, Beatrice Hicks, Louise Riles, Eloise Wingard, Jessie Smilie, Alice Jewel Townsend, Jessoise Rawls, Louise Marshall, Mary Frances Guice, Marguerite Penn, Myrtle Louise Parker, Mary Katherine Thweatt, Myrtle Lee Bozeman, Mary Johnson, Georgia Mae McMoy, Corrie Barfoot, Lillian Brooks, Sara Margaret Hicks, Irma Rials, Mary Huffman, Marietta Brooks, Mattie Brooks, Evelyn Grant, Lois Alva McGhee, Sara McCormick, Vivian Parker and Evelyn McNeill.

Twenty members of the Ramer Chapter Future Farmers of Alabama returned Friday from a three-day camp at Panama City, Fla. The boys were accompanied by Prof. G. H. Dyar, faculty adviser of the club. Through the courtesy of the board of education the trip was made in a school truck with W. M. Mills as driver.

A new metal roof on the Ramer Methodist Church has been completed. Funds for the roof were subscribed by members of the congregation.

The annual reunion of the McNeill Family Association will be held the third Sunday in July at the old homestead in Macedonia community.

The annual reunion of the descendants of the Rev. and Mrs. Jack Smilie will be held the second Sunday in August at the homestead of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen ???? in Smilietown community.

The annual reunion of the Shackelford Family Association will be held July 4 at Pintlala.

The annual reunion of the Copeland family will be held July 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Copeland in Friendship community.

The Ramer Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor a play, "Oh, Professor," at Montgomery County High School auditorium Tuesday night. Members of the cast include: Harold Jones, Mary Trotter, Edward Sellers, George Bass, David Dillard, Jimmie Huffman, Sara Emily Cowles, M. B. Rushton, M. L. Kennick, Jo Fannin, Elbrid Dillard, Lamar Fowler, Evelyn Black, Margaret Stephens, Julia Wilkerson, Bannie Dillard, Loretta Kennick and Bessie Battle. In the chorus will be Myrtle House, Estelle Stephens, Mary Cowles, Charlotte Blackburn, Martha Helen Brooks, Carol Tucker and Eleanor Carter and a group of small children. A nominal admission will be charge.

The Pinedale Fellowship Club will sponsor a play the night of July 11 in the Pinedale Chapel. Characters will be: John Herndon, Kendrick Baltzer, James Duncan, Evelyn Hancock, Eula Bell Duncan, Annie Mae Duncan and Mattie Lee Dowdell.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Ramer Methodist Church will meet July 16, with Mrs. N. J. Cowles and Mrs. C. E. Rushing as hostesses. Mrs. P. H. Harris will be leader.

The Ramer Masonic Lodge will install the following officers at the next meeting on July 6. M. B. Rushton, worshipful master; C. M. Brooks, senior warden; Coleman Wingard, junior warden; W. M. Weaver, treasurer; H. D. Smith, secretary; F. P. Hicks, senior deacon; A. H. Harrod, junior deacon; G. C. McDowell, tiler.

A revival service will open at Pinedale Chapel July 14 and continue through the week following. Paul Lupo, student of Bob Jones College who conducted a meeting at Pinedale last summer will be in charge.

Thirty-three grape vines given to the members of the Ramer Chapter F. F. A. the first of the year by the Horticultural Department of the A. P. I. for a prize winning essay written by Whit Athey, Jr., club secretary are all growing and give promise of making hardy plants. The boys who received and have tendered the grape vines are: Seals Menefee, Whit Athey, William Paulk, James Sellers, Alex Chesnutt, George Gunter Williams, Emmitt Davis, Willis Taylor, Arden Bradley, Joe Richard Norman, Windom Parker, Clarence Gibson, Lamar Smilie, J. T. House, Elwyn McGhee, Robert Payne, Winfred Cauthen, J. E. Felton, Hartley Norman, John Taylor, Shackelford Scaife, Otto Duncan, Ronald Sellers, S. M. Bozeman, Derrell Carter, Lugene Huffman, Dan Murrell, T. L. Dennis, Willie Jean, Elgin Smilie, and Sam Robinson.

The annual homecoming at Oak Bowery Church of Christ will be on Sunday, July 21. A revival meeting will be held during the week following.

The Smilietown Community Club will attend the club rally July 10 at Ramer in lieu of the regular monthly meeting. The annual club picnic will be held the third Thursday in August.

Members of the Ramer B. Y. P. U. will leave Wednesday for a Summer camping trip at Cobb's Ford, near Montgomery. They will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kennick.

The Pine Level Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will meet July 17 with the junior members in charge of the program. Mary Frances Guice and Alice Jewel Townsend will be joint chairmen of the program committee.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will meet July 9 with Mrs. A. L. Carter and Mrs. J. E. Felton as hostesses. The monthly Royal Service program will be given with Mrs. J. H. Connally as leader.

The Pinedale Civic Club will meet July 9 with Mrs. J. W. Hovey as hostess and Mrs. C. O. Jones as director. Roll call will be answered with names of women leaders of Montgomery County. Members will attend in a body the club rally at Ramer July 10.

The Round Table Club of Grady will meet July 17 with Mrs. W. M. Weaver as hostess. Response to roll call will be made with nursery rhymes. Mrs. C. D. Keener will give some statistics on "What Uncle Sam Is Doing for Better Babies." And Mrs. Weaver will lead a round table discussion on "What Other Countries Are Doing for Better Babies."

The Friendship Community Club held its weekly singing Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wingard near Center Point.

The following members of the Pintlala 4-H Club have received certificates for the completion of one year's work: Eleanor Chesnutt, Jodie Reynolds, Alabelle Norman, Eloise Carr, Fannie Ellen Henry, Miriam Lassiter, Margaret Lee Taylor, Myrtis Lilybell Rowe, Lillie Myrtle Taylor, Elna Brown, Helen Dunn, Clara Amelia Boyd, Gertrude Mason, Lula Duncan and Marie Brady.

July 8, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

The Montgomery County 4-H achievement shield, presented annually to that club doing the most outstanding work, has been held by three club since it was first presented in 1930. Pintlala Junior Club won the shield in 1930 and 1931; Pine Level was the winner in 1932 and 1933; and Ramer Senior Club has held the shield since 1934. The shield is the gift of the Montgomery County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs, which chose this means of giving recognition to outstanding club work. The president of the council makes the presentation annually to the winning club at the county 4-H rally.

Annual revival services will begin at Friendship Baptist Church the third Sunday in August. The Rev. W. H. Cook is pastor.

The LaPlace Circuit will hold its third quarterly conference Wednesday at Mt. Meigs Methodist Church. Dr. O. V. Calhoun, presiding elder of the Montgomery district, will be in charge.

Delegates from the Mt. Meigs League to the young people's assembly at Huntingdon College July 10-16, will be Lee Zora Dees, Bobby Baldwin and Angeline Jenkins.

Mrs. A. L. Carter and Mrs. J. E. Felton will be hostesses to the Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society Tuesday at the monthly royal service program. Mrs. J. H. Connally will be program leader.

The Fellowship Club of Pinedale will present a benefit play at the community house on Thursday night.

The Mt. Meigs Epworth League entertained at a benefit ice cream supper at the Church Wednesday night to make money to defray the expenses of delegates to the young people's assembly at Huntingdon College.

Members of the 121st Motor Transport Company, Alabama National Guard, will leave Ramer July 19 for their annual Summer training camp, at Fort McClellan. Before going into training, the company will transport other companies from several states to Fort McClellan. Capt. W. D. Smith is the company's commanding officer.

Mrs. W. M. Weaver will be hostess to the Grady Round Table Club on July 17. A program will be given on "Better Babies," with Mrs. C. D. Kenner and Mrs. Weaver leading the discussions.

The fortnightly recreational class of Pinedale community sponsored by the Willing Workers Class, will hold its regular meeting July 18 at the community house. Mrs. James McInnis is teacher of the class and director of the recreational activities.

A family gathering held at Dublin on July 4 assembled the following: Mr. and Mrs. W. T. M. Rushing and Edward Rushing, of Selma, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Springer (Flora Rushing) and two sons of Clayton; Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Rushing, of Montgomery; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Payne (Regina Rushing) and sons, Robert and Richard, of Dublin.

The Stones Woman's Club was entertained Friday afternoon at an outing by Mrs. Higdon. Swimming was enjoyed and watermelons were served. Preceding the swimming party Mrs. Mamie Thorington gave a review of Lloyd Douglas's novel, "Green Lights." Mrs. C. L. Chenault presided. About 20 members and visitors were present.

The annual homecoming at Liberty Church in the Pintlala community will be held the fourth Sunday in July. A series of meetings will be held during the week following. I. L. Boles of Montgomery will be in charge.

A revival meeting at Tabernacle Methodist Church near Hope Hull, held by Dr. C. W. Northcutt, of Montgomery, closed Wednesday night. Dr. Northcutt was assisted by the Rev. Jones, of Fort Deposit, pastor of the church.

The Pinedale Civic Club will meet on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. W. Hovey as hostess and Mrs. C. O. Jones as director. On Wednesday the club will attend in a body the county rally at Ramer, where they will have an exhibit of artcraft made during the past year, and where their president, Mrs. James McInnis, will represent the club in the county elimination of a public speaking contest sponsored by the National Farm Bureau.

The LaPine Civic Club, the Smilietown Community Club, the LeGrand Community Club, the Sellers Civic Club, the Ramer Civic Club, the Chesser Community Club and Pike Road Woman's Club are among those which will have no monthly meeting in July, but will attend the county rally on Wednesday at Ramer in lieu of the regular meetings.

William Paulk, a member of the Ramer Chapter, F. F. A., has been elected treasurer of the Montgomery District Association of the Future Farmers of Alabama. Prof. G. H. Dyer, faculty adviser, and J. E. Felton, treasurer, of the Ramer Chapter, attended the district meeting at Holtville Monday night for the purpose of electing officers and making plans for a Summer camp.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Pine Level Baptist Church will hold its monthly meeting July 17 at the church. Misses Mary Frances Guice and Alice Jewel Townsend will be in charge of the program.

Annual homecoming will be held at Oak Bowery Church of Christ on Sunday, July 21.

Certificates have been issued the following members of the Pike Road Senior 4-H club for the completion of one year's work: Carolyn Cantey, Carrie Pugh, Nell Cantey, Claire Fannin, Mary Lou Hughes, Ann Jordan, Ernestine Cantey, Gussie Cantey, Emily Paul, Frances Meriwether, Marie Butler, Mary Elizabeth Meriwether, Martha Marler, Lee Zora Dees, Mildred Kendrick, Esther Brown Davis and Gladys Maddox.

Junior members as follows have received certificates: Mildred Brown Davis, Jimmie Reid Kennedy, Marion Cox, Nellie Warren Meriwether, Eloise Shaner, Elizabeth Argo, Nellie Meriwether, Mary Alice Sullivan, Sara Louise Rhodes, Margaret Garnard, Ellajean Shaner, Dora An McClurkin, Sara Frances Pugh, Genero Alford, Genie Mae Barnes, Juanita Smith, Alma Josephine Rhodes, Gertrude Johnson, Doris Lucile Barnes, Annie Buford Moore, Johnnie Mae Johnson and Mary Gordon Martin.

Members of the Ramer B. Y. P. U. have returned from a camping trip at Cobbs Ford. Those attending the camp were: Margaret Rushton, Frances Rushton, M. B. Rushton, Jr., Walter Kennick, Mark Kennick, Loretta and Nelson Kennick, Marjorie Cherry, Ben Wilson, Eleanor Carter, Martha Helen Brooks, Charlotte Frances Blackburn, Glenn Smith and others. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Kennick and Mrs. C. M. Brooks chaperoned the young people. Visitors on July 4 were Mrs. G. L. Cherry, Miss Carolyn Cherry, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Smith.

July 14, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

Jack Stephens, president of the Epworth League of Ramer Methodist Church, and Myrtie Souse, secretary-treasurer, are attending the Young People's Summer Assembly of the Alabama Conference, in session at Huntingdon College, as representatives from their organization. Lee Zora Dees, Angeline Jenkins and Bobby Baldwin are attending as representatives from the Mt. Meigs Epworth League. Ruby Dukes is representing LaPlace League; Edith Daughtry and Rebecca Sargent are representing Neals League and May Segrest is attending from Bradford's League.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Ramer Baptist Church held its monthly Royal Service meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. L. Carter with Mrs. J. E. Felton as joint hostess. Mrs. J. H. Connally was leader of a program on "Lifting the Banner in Africa." Those taking part in the program were: Mrs. Neil J. Cowles, Mrs. W. H. Green, Mrs. M. H. Kennick, Mrs. F. W. Collier, Mrs. C. M. Brooks, Mrs. G. L. Cherry. Mrs. Connally gave the devotional. Visitors were Mrs. E. H. Coleman, of Bonifay, Fla., and Mrs. Alex McCaskell, of Troy. At the close of the meeting, the hostess served a salad plate.

The Round Table Club of Grady will meet Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. W. M. Weaver will be hostess.

Revival services are being held this week at Snowdown Methodist Church with the Rev. Thomas G. Jones, pastor, in charge. Services will be held daily at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. Special services for children will be held at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Pintlala Farm Bureau held its monthly meeting Wednesday night, with Frank M. Stewart presiding. The principal feature of the program was an address by G. W. Ray, marketing specialist, on the details and purposes of community farm bureaus. Other features on the program were special musical numbers, including a vocal solo by Lem A. Edmonson, Jr., accompanied by Miss Corrie Frances Garrett, secretary of the Pintlala farm organization.

Annual homecoming day will be held at Mt. Pleasant Church of Christ the third Sunday in July. C. A. Buffington, pastor, will be in charge. Revival services will be held during the week following. Annual homecoming will also be held at Oak Bowery Church of Christ on the third Sunday in July. J. M. Redmon will preach at 11 a.m. and there will be a song service in the afternoon. A basket dinner will be served. The meeting will be continued through the following week.

Annual homecoming day will be observed at both Liberty Church of Christ in the Pintlala community and at Dublin Church of Christ on the fourth Sunday in July.

Revival services will be opened at the Methodist Church of LaPine the first Sunday in August. The Rev. Thomas G. Jones, pastor, will be in charge.

Annual revival services will be held at Friendship Baptist Church in August, the meeting to open the third Sunday.

Homecoming exercises have been scheduled for the Church of Christ at Grady for the fourth Sunday in August. At this time, the pastor, W. T. rider, hopes to assemble his former classmates when as a youth he attended the school of Prof. Haynes in Grady.

The annual Smilie reunion is announced for the second Sunday in August. It is expected to assemble a large number of the descendants of the Rev. and Mrs. Jack Smilie, pioneer settlers of the Smilietown community, at their original homestead.

The McNeill Reunion Association will hold its annual meeting July 21 at the original McNeill homestead in the Macedonia community. It is expected to assemble approximately 200 descendants of James and Jane Smilie McNeill, pioneer settlers of Alabama.

Annual homecoming will be held at Ebenezer Primitive Baptist Church the first Sunday in September and at Bethlehem Primitive Baptist Church the second Sunday in September.

Home demonstration clubs of the county will hold their annual picnics in August.

Canning is in progress at the following relief canning centers in the county: McLemore Farm, LaPine, Ramer, Cecil, Pine Level, Feltondale, Sellers, Stones, Pike Road, Ray's Store, Chisholm and Mt. Meigs. A public canning center is being operated at Lassiter's in the Pintlala community.

Members of the 121st Motor Transport Company, Alabama National Guard, will leave Ramer Friday for their annual Summer encampment at Fort McClellan. The company will be away 40 days.

Whit Athey and Alex Chesnutt, delegates from the Ramer Chapter, F. F. A., to the Summer conference of the Future Farmers of Alabama: Seals Menefee, treasurer of the State organization; and Prof. G. H. Dyar, faculty adviser of the Ramer chapter, have returned from Auburn, where the conference was in session Thursday through Saturday.

The Mt. Meigs Community Farm Bureau held a meeting Thursday night. J. R. Relfe presided.

The Pine Level Community Farm Bureau will meet at the school Thursday night.

William Paulk, of the Ramer Chapter F. F. A., has been elected treasurer of the Montgomery District F. F. A. organization.

The Pinedale Civic Club will hold a spend-the-day party July 23 with the Misses McInnis as hostesses. A business session will be held and roll call will be answered with historical points in Montgomery.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will hold its monthly business session July 22 at the church. Mrs. J. M. Grant will be leader. Mrs. C. M. Brooks will preside.

July 22, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

The Mt. Zion B. Y. P. U. is practicing a benefit play to be given at a date to be announced. Funds from the play will be used for repairs for the church and a piano. Miss Erlene Paulk is directing the practice. Member of the cast are: Herbert Pinson, Clem Paulk, Clarence Gibson, William Paulk, Jessie Paulk, Jessie Martha Gibson and Evelyn Gibson.

Preaching days at Ramer Baptist Church have been changed to the second and fourth Sundays. Rev. W. H. Cook is pastor.

The Pine Level Methodist Woman's Missionary Society met Tuesday afternoon at the church, with Mrs. W. T. Barnett presiding and Mrs. Allen Frazer as leader. Following a business session reports from the recent zone meeting at Henderson were given by Mrs. Barnett, Mrs. Frazer, Mrs. A. P. Jones, and Mrs. Annie Johnson.

Revival services are in progress this week at Pine Level Methodist Church. The Rev. W. O. Calhoun, pastor, is conducting services each morning and night.

The Grady Round Table Club will meet Aug. 7 with Mrs. T. W. Athey as hostess. Roll call will be answered with the names of favorite songs. The program will be arranged by the hostess.

The Ramer Methodist Woman's Missionary Society met Tuesday afternoon in the church parlor with Mrs. C. E. Rushing as hostess. In the absence of the president, Mrs. S. U. Turnipseed, Mrs. P. H. Harris presided. Mrs. J. C. Sellers called the roll and gave the minutes. Mrs. W. G. Sellers and Mrs. J. D. Turnipseed were requested to provide flowers for the church during August. Mrs. Byrtram Trotter, chairman of the hospitality committee, made plans for the entertainment of the pastor during the revival which will open the second Sunday in August. Plans for a canvass of church members before the revival were discussed by Mrs. W. G. Sellers. It was announced that there would be no W. M. S. meeting in August. A mission program was directed by Mrs. J. D. Turnipseed with Mrs. W. G. Sellers conducting the devotionals. A mission study lesson was taught by Mrs. P. H. Harris. A social hour followed and an ice course was served by the hostess.

The Ramer Chapter, F. F. A., will hold its annual project tour the first week in August. The home projects of all members of the club will be visited at this time.

The annual revival at Providence Presbyterian Church at LeGrand has been announced for Aug. 11-18, the Rev. C. H. Rogers of Marbury is the pastor.

A total of 358,835 miles was travelled in transporting school children of Montgomery County to consolidated schools in 1934-1935. Forty-six trucks were used and 2,100 children were transported.

The Ramer Baptist W. M. S. will have a mission study class Tuesday to be taught by Mrs. Kathleen Cowles. The monthly business meeting will be held at the church Monday with Mrs. C. M. Brooks presiding and Mrs. J. M. Grant as leader.

Annual revival services will begin at LaPine Methodist Church the first Sunday in August. The Rev. Thomas G. Jones, pastor, will be in charge. The Rev. Mrs. Jones, who is also pastor of Snowdown Methodist Church, held a revival there the past week, the meeting closing on Thursday night.

Annual revival services are in progress this week at Mt. Pleasant Church of Christ. Minister C. A. Buffington is in charge.

The Pinedale Civic Club will hold a spend-the-day party Tuesday with the Misses McInnis as hostesses. A business meeting will be held and roll call will be answered with the name of a point of historical interest in Montgomery.

Members of the Catoma junior 4-H club who have received certificates for the completion of a year's work are: Ida Grace Christian, Annie Ruth Lewis, Hortense Hudson, Edna Gates, Geneal Brannon, Saralee Thames, Mary Ellen Gates, Ruby Athey, Katherine Norsworth, Varice Eleanor Vinson, Maggie Frances Smith, Mary Agnes Pouncy, Lucille Hobbs, Irene Christian, Juanita Lewis, Rubyleen Barron, Mary Edna Reville, Anna Lou Lamar, Bertha Barton, Lucy Creamer and Lucy Skinner.

The LeGrand Community Club will hold its annual picnic in August. The monthly club meeting will be omitted. The Ramer Civic Club will hold a spend-the-day party at the Armory instead of the monthly business meeting. Smilietown Community Club will also hold its annual picnic instead of the regular business section.

The Pine Level Baptist W. M. S. held its monthly meeting at the church Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. J. M. Townsend presided. Misses Mary Frances Guice and Alice Jewel Townsend directed a program given by the junior members. At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served.

Annual homecoming will be held at Liberty Church of Christ in the Pintlala Community July 28, I. L. Boles, of Montgomery is pastor.

Annual homecoming will be held at Dublin Church of Christ July 28.

The annual revival meeting at Ramer Baptist Church will open the first Sunday in September. The Rev. W. H. Cook is pastor.

Regular preaching services will be held at Pisgah Primitive Baptist Church Thursday instead of Sunday. The pastor, Elder J. W. McLeod, will be attending another meeting during the weekend.

The recreational class at Pinedale sponsored by the Willing Workers Sunday School class, will meet August 1 and 13.

The annual Smilie family reunion will be held the second Sunday in August at "Wil Glen" in Smilietown.

A mission study class conducted in four lessons has just been completed by the members of the Pine Level Methodist W. M. S. Miss Zula McNeill taught the class.

July 29, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

Mrs. James McInnis, president of the Pinedale Civic Club, will be the club's official representative to the annual meeting of the State Council of Home Demonstration Clubs in Auburn July 30-Aug. 2.

A revival meeting will open at Pine Level Baptist Church the night of Aug. 5 and be continued through Aug. 11 with services at night only. Dr. F. M. Barnes, chairman of the executive board of the Alabama Baptist Convention, will conduct the services.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society held its monthly meeting at the church Monday afternoon. Fourteen members and two visitors were present. Mrs. C. M. Brooks president and Mrs. G. L. Cherry led the devotional service. Reports of the officers and young people's leaders were heard. The president reported that the W. M. S. had sent 1,000 soap coupons to the Baptist Orphanage at Troy. It was further reported that every woman resident member had given to missions during the year. Mrs. G. C. McDowell and Ms. W. V. Neville were appointed the flower committee for the church during August. Mrs. Bill Gowan, of Cecil, and Mrs. J. R. Thomas were visitors. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. G. L. Cherry with Mrs. J. M. Grant, as assistant hostess.

The Ramer Y. W. A. had a mission study class at the church Tuesday. Mrs. W. H. Cook was teacher. Eleven members completed the course.

A recreational program sponsored by the Willing Workers Class of Pinedale Sunday School will be held at Pinedale Chapel Thursday afternoon.

Annual revival services will begin at Ramer Methodist Church Aug. 11. The Grady Community Farm Bureau held its final organization meeting on Tuesday night in the school auditorium. Plans were made to send representatives to Auburn during Farmers' Week. C. E. Mills presided. County Agent, Lem A. Edmonson was present and addressed the assembly. Officers of the Grady Farm Bureau are C. E. Mills, president; E. F. Wingard, vice-president; Charles Garner, secretary.

Annual revival services will begin at the LaPine Methodist Church Aug. 4.

The annual Smilie reunion will be held on Aug. 11.

Homecoming exercises will be held at Grady Church of Christ Aug. 25.

As a part of its scholarship objective, the Catoma Community Club will finance a boy through Sidney Lanier High School in the 1935-36 term. Mrs. Rebecca Brock is chairman of the scholarship objective.

During the 1934-35 school year, the Smilietown Community Club spent $32.50 for books, clothing, food and help in other ways to keep children in school. The club also spent $35 for trips made by 4-H girls and club women to different meetings. In June the members entertained the local 4-H girls at a recreational program at Pine Level School. All of these activities were carried out as a part of the scholarship objective, of which Mrs. C. O. Rawls is chairman.

The Pinedale Civic Club will meet on Aug. 13 with Mrs. J. S. Boland as hostess and Miss Minnie Irene Spivey as program director. Roll call will be answered with the name of a recent book and the feature of the program will be a book review.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will hold its monthly Royal Service meeting Aug. 6. Mrs. G. C. McDowell will be leader. Mrs. G. L. Cherry and Mrs. J. M. Grant will be hostesses.

Revival services will begin Aug. 11 at Providence Presbyterian Church at LeGrand and will continue through the following Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Cook, Mrs. E. W. Collier and Rev. W. H. Cook of the Ramer Baptist Church, attended the W. M. U. quarterly meeting at Ft. Deposit Thursday as official representatives.

The Mt. Zion B. Y. P. U. will present a benefit play at the church on the night of Aug. 10. Miss Erlene Paulk is directing the practice.

Among the county people who are making vacation trips are: Misses Lottie McInnis, Eunice McInnis, and Zuide McInnis, of Pinedale, who are now visiting in California; Miss Lillie McInnis, who has just returned from Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Brooks, Miss Martha Helen Brooks, Misses Frances Helen and Margaret Rushton, of Ramer, who are now visiting in Tennessee and North Carolina; Mrs. S. U. Turnipseed of Ramer who is visiting her son, Rev. Andrew Turnipseed in Tampa, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Stoner, James Stoner and Miss Rose Stoner, of Pinedale, who have been in Ohio for the past two weeks; Miss Clara Ella Paulk of Chesser, who is visiting relatives in New York City.

Dr. A. D. Cowles, of Ramer, member of the State staff of the Alabama National Guard, left Saturday for Anniston for two weeks Summer encampment at Ft. McClellan.

The Grady Round Table Club will hold its annual "friendship" meeting on Aug. 7. Mrs. Whit Athey will be hostess and will arrange a special program for the occasion. Roll call will be answered with names of favorite songs.

August 5, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

Among the Montgomery County farmers who attended the rally at Auburn last week were: W. C. Jackson, president of the Pine Level Farm Bureau and J. A. Rhodes, A. F. Jones, Coleman Wingard, George F. Wingard and C. W. Adams, of Pine Level; C. E. Mills, president of the Grady Farm Bureau, and Rufus Fannin, W. M. Mills, J. O. Milligan, Harvey Milligan, Bill Milligan, A. L. Bigger, Tyre Spear and Ben Spear, members of the Grady organization; Fred Barrett, J. W. Bryant, W. H. Johnson, Sr., and W. H. Johnson, Jr., of Beat 18; Norman Guy, H. E. Rowe, Roy Supple, Lewis Felder, T. C. Sullivan and W. B. Whatley, of the Pintlala Farm Bureau.

Also J. R. Relfe, president of the Mt. Meigs Farm Bureau, and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Borland, Gene Handy, Mrs. J. R. Relfe, R. J. Argo, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Judkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Belser, T. A. Belser, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Garnand, A. J. McLemore, W. T. Oliver, Sellers Davis, J. K. McClurkin, Ira McClurkin, J. P. Pharr, Mrs. Varney Gerald and Arthur Dees, of the Mt. Meigs organization.

Others from the county who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Lem A. Edmonson, Lem A. Edmonson, Jr., C. W. Rittenour and Richard Wible, all of the County Farm Bureau office.

Annual homecoming will be held at Mt. Zion Baptist Church Aug. 18. The Rev. L. Vickery, of Shellhorn, pastor, will open a revival meeting on homecoming day and continue the services through the week. Services will be held at night only.

The Chesser Community Club will hold its annual picnic on Aug. 21 at the home of Miss Helen Amason, president.

The members of the Pinedale Civic Club have been invited to a spend-the-day party Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Henry Stanley in Snowdown, who formerly lived in the Pinedale community.

Revival services were opened Sunday at Orion Baptist Church and will be in progress this week. The Rev. W. H. Cook, of Ft. Deposit, pastor, is in charge.

Annual revival services are in progress this week at Mt. Carmel Protestant Church, having opened Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Lynch, of Petrey, pastor, is in charge. Assisting him is his son, a returned missionary.

A play will be presented at Mt. Zion Baptist Church Saturday at 8 p.m., under the auspices of the Mt. Zion Young People's Union, for the benefit of the church. Boxes will be sold for 10 cents each.

Mrs. T. W. Athey will be hostess to the Grady Round Table Club Wednesday afternoon. Members of the LaPine Music Study Club will be special guests, it being an annual custom to entertain the LaPine Club in August. The hostess will be in charge of the program.

Revival services will open at Pine Level Baptist Church Monday night with Dr. F. M. Barnes, of Montgomery, in charge. Services will be held at night only.

The annual reunion of the Smilie family will be held Sunday at "Willow Glen" in Smilietown.

The fortnightly recreational class sponsored by the young people of Pinedale Sunday School will be held Aug. 15.

Four new members, received at the Church of Christ in Dublin during the revival services the past week were baptized Saturday afternoon. They were Alex Mansell, Noah Tetter, Dimples Harrod and Garrett Harrod. The meeting will be continued through this week with services at night only.

The monthly Royal Service program of the Ramer Baptist W. M. S. will be held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. L. Cherry with Mrs. Jim Grant as joint hostess. Mrs. G. C. McDowell will be program leader. The topic of the meeting will be "Lifting the Banner in Japan."

The regular meeting of the Pinedale Civic Club will be held on Aug. 13 with Mrs. J. S. Boland as hostess and Miss Minnie Irene Spivey as director.

Revival services will start Sunday at the Ramer Methodist Church. The pastor, the Rev. W. O. Calhoun, will be in charge of all services.

The annual homecoming at Grady is scheduled for the fourth Sunday in August.

The annual cemetery cleaning at Elizabeth Cemetery near Mt. Lebanon, will be held Wednesday.

The Ramer Epworth League held a picnic and watermelon cutting at Landers Lake near Highland Home Wednesday night.

The members of the Smilietown Community Club have voted to omit the usual club picnic in August.

Revival services will begin at Providence Presbyterian Church in LeGrand Sunday and Continue through Aug. 18. The Rev. C. H. Rogers, of Marbury, pastor, will be in charge.

Officers of the McNeill Family Reunion Association who will serve this year are: J. M. Jones, president; O. C. McNeill, Edward Gipson, Mrs. Mary Chaffin, A. C. Jones, W. M. Thweatt, Mrs. Imena Harmon,

M. N. McNeill, Jack Johnson, Mrs. Imogene Boswell, and Miss Nannie Sellers, vice-presidents; Mrs. Irene Ellis, secretary; Miss Zula McNeill, historian.

August, 19, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

The young people of hope Hull Church will present a play, "Here Comes Charlie," Thursday night. Mrs. W. A. Webster will be director and members of the cast will be: Gertrude Mason, Abner McGhee, Elizabeth Pirtle, Hocker Pirtle, Henry Pirtle, Nannie Gay Pettus, Arthur Webster, Martha Pettus, Louise Wallace and Bill Lamar. An offering will be taken but no admission price will be charged.

Revival services will begin next Sunday at the Methodist Episcopal Church of Mt. Carmel.

Dr. S. D. Suggs, of Montgomery, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Pintlala Farm Bureau Tuesday night. The subject of his talk was "The Importance of Hospitalization for Rural People." Frank Stewart, chairman, presided. Musical numbers were given by Misses Mary and Marie Boyd, who played a piano duet, and Miss Lois Neal, who sang a solo, accompanied by Miss Frances Neal. The program was arranged by the members who live in Beat 10.

The Grady Round Table Club will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. G. L. Harris as hostess. Mrs. E. E. Dryden will make a talk on "Current Events," and Mrs. J. L. Tucker will lead the round table discussion. Response to roll call will be made with current events.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will hold its monthly business meeting Monday afternoon at the church. Mrs. C. M. Brooks will preside and Mrs. H. D. Smith will be leader. The monthly Royal Service meeting was held the past week at the home of Mrs. G. L. Cherry with Mrs. J. M. Grant as assistant hostess. Mrs. G. C. McDowell, leader, directed a program on "Lifting the Banner in Japan," in which a group of young girls in Japanese costumes took part. At the close of the meeting, refreshments in seasonal motif were served.

The Pine Level Baptist Woman's Missionary Society met Wednesday afternoon at the church with Mrs. J. M. Townsend presiding. Mrs. Roger Daniel directed a program on "Lifting the Banner in the Land of the Rising Sun."

Revival services will be held this week at Friendship Baptist Church. The Rev. W. H. Cook, pastor, will be in charge of the services.

The itinerary for the delivery of gin certificates for county farmers will be as follows for this week: Monday, 7 a.m. to 11 a.m., Beat 11, Paulk's store; 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., Beat 16, Fleta; 3 p.m. to 6 p.m., Beat 10, A. R. Garrett's Store; Tuesday, 7 a.m. to noon, Beat 12, Teasley's Mill.; 2 p.m. to 5:30 p.m., Beat 8, Berry's Store; 6 p.m., Beat 22, Snowdown.

Among the Montgomery Countians who are attending the camp meeting in Indian Springs, Ga. Are Misses Lillie and Eunice McInnis, Billie Jones, Fred Davis and Curry Davis of the Pinedale community.

The Pinedale Fellowship Club sponsored a community moonlight picnic at Pinedale Chapel Wednesday night.

Plans have been completed for the annual homecoming at Grade, Aug. 25. The program will open with a sermon at 11 a.m. at the Church of Christ, by W. T. Grider, pastor. A basket dinner will be served at noon. The gathering is expected to assemble several hundred former residents of this section and pupils of the Haynes School, conducted a number of years ago at Grady by Prof. Will Haynes.

The Pinedale Civic Club held its fortnightly meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. S. Boland, with 25 members present. Mrs. James McInnis presided. Reports were given by Miss Lillie McInnis on a trip to Mexico and by Miss Eunice McInnis on a trip to California. Plans were made and approved for next year's program. At the close of the program a social meeting was held and a plate lunch served. The final meeting of the present club year will be a spend-the-day party on Aug. 27 with the Mesdames Egerton as hostesses.

Family Reunion Associations of the county will have the following officers during the ensuing year: Smilie family, C. B. Smilie, president; A. J. Smilie, vice-president; Mrs. Arden Bradley, secretary and chairman of program committee.

McNeill family, J. M. Jones, Pine Level, president; O. C. McNeill, Pine Level; Edward Gipson, Prattville; Mrs. Mary Cowart Chaffin, Troy; A. C. Jones Ramer; W. M. Thweatt, Andalusia; Mrs. Imena McDade Harmon, Troy; M. N. McNeill, Montgomery; Jack Johnson, Mt. Meigs; Mrs. Imogene Townsend Boswell, Troy; and Miss Nannie Sellers, Troy, vice-presidents; Mrs. L. M. C. Ellis, Montgomery, secretary; Miss Zula McNeill, Pine Level, historian. Shackelford family, Dr. E. M. Shackelford, Troy, president; Dr. Francis Shackelford, Pintlala, vice-president; Mrs. Reid Lancaster, Montgomery, secretary-treasurer; the Rev. Franklin S. Moseley, Shorter, historian.

The Ramer P. T. A. will hold its first meeting of the new school term on the first Wednesday in October. It will entertain the faculty and members of the Board of Education, on Sept. 25.

A revival meeting will be held at Hope Hull Methodist Protestant Church the last week in August. Dr. Joseph Eddins, of Birmingham, will conduct services each morning and night.

The annual homecoming will be held at Ebenezer Primitive Baptist Church on Sept. 1. Dr. L. N. Duncan, of Auburn, Congressman Lister Hill, Judge Walter B. Jones and Richard Rives, of Montgomery will be guest speakers.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Frazer entertained informally at their home, "Willow Glen," Monday night, their guests being the following members of the Smilie Family Association: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sirmon and Mrs. Kitty Smilie Sims, of Daphne; Miss Josephine Barnett, of Bristow, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Gillis Smilie. L. S. Smilie, Gilbert Smilie, Douglas Smilie, Richard Smilie, Wilbur Smilie, Anna Laurie Smilie, Lloyd Smile; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smilie, W. D. Smilie, Evelyn Smilie, Kitty Virginia Sealy, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smilie, Miss Margaret Smilie, Mrs. Frank Curtis, Miss Claudie Bell Curtis and Mrs. Pauline Curtis.

The annual homecoming at Bethlehem Primitive Baptist Church will be held the second Sunday in September.

August 26, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

Approximately 300 people attended the homecoming at Grady Sunday. The exercises were at the Church of Christ, where preaching services were held at 11 a.m. by W. T. Grider, pastor. A basket dinner was served at noon and an informal song service in the afternoon completed the program. The homecoming was the opening of the annual revival services which will be in progress this week.

Two new members received at Friendship Baptist Church at a revival the past week were baptized Friday afternoon. They were Mary Huffman and Eleanor Gardner. Another member was received by letter.

The annual cemetery working will be held at Bethlehem Primitive Baptist Church Thursday. The annual homecoming will be held Sept. 8.

An all-day singing will be held at Oak Bowery Sept. 8. Those attending are requested to bring the Class Choir songbooks.

The annual homecoming at Ebenezer will be held Sunday.

Revival services are being held this week at the Methodist Episcopal Church of Mt. Carmel community.

The Pinedale Civic Club will close its year's program Tuesday with a spend-the-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Eagerton.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will hold its monthly Royal Service program on Sept 3. Hostesses will be Mrs. H. D. Smith, Mrs. C. M. Smith and Mrs. Mark H. Kennick. Mrs. C. M. Brooks will preside.

Revival services are being held this week at the Protestant Methodist Church of Hope Hull. Dr. Joseph Eddins, president of the Alabama Protestant Methodist Conference assisted by the Rev. Fred Dais, pastor, is conducting the services.

The Round Table Club of Grady will meet Sept. 4 with Mrs. M. M. Tucker as hostess. Taking part on the program will be Mrs. G. L. Harris, who will give a paper on "Alabama Educational Funds" and Mrs. Tucker, who will lead a discussion on "What Is Education?" Response to roll call will be made with the names of Alabama educators.

The LaPlace Circuit League Union will meet Wednesday night at Mt. Meigs with the Mt. Meigs Epworth League as host. Representatives will attend from Neals Union, Bradford, Mt. Meigs and LaPlace Leagues.

The Fellowship Club of Pinedale and a number of special guests were entertained Wednesday night at the home of Miss Katherine Simpson. Following the program, an informal birthday party was given in celebration of the birthday anniversaries of Miss Simpson, her mother and C. O. Jones. Approximately 70 residents of the community were present.

Home demonstration clubs of the county will have the following schedule of meetings in September: Catoma Community Club, Sept. 5; Pinedale Woman's Club, Sept. 10 and Sept. 24; LaPine Civic/Clb, Sept 17; Pike Road Woman's Club, Sept. 18; Smilietown Community Club, Sept. 20; Ramer Civic Club, Sept 24; Chesser Community Club, Sept. 26; Stones Civic Club, Sept. 27.

Annual community services held at Pisgah Primitive Baptist Church Sunday was the occasion for the assembling of approximately 200 members and visitors at the church. A basket dinner was served in the church grove.

September 1, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

Among the Montgomery County boys and girls who will enter or return to their college work this month are: Miss Sara Webster, of LaPine, miss Carolyn Collier, of Grady, Miss Ester Chancery, of Orion, Miss Lucile Chancey, of Macedonia, Miss Aileen Williams, of Sellers, Miss Martha Mae Gardner, of Pisgah, and Henry McNeill, of Pine level, who will go to State Teachers' College at Troy; Morgan Guice, of Pine Level, who will return to the University of Alabama; James Townsend, of Pine Level, who will go to Atlanta Dental College; Miss Dottie Stough, of LaPine, who will go to Bob Jones College in Cleveland, Tenn.; Miss Frances Howard Sullivan of Smilietown, who will be at Huntingdon College in Montgomery; Miss Minouise Thompson, of Smilietown, who will return to Birmingham-Southern College; Francis Anderson, Davis Anderson and Miss Annie Anderson of Sellers, who will return to the University of Alabama, and Miss Evelyn Williams, of Sellers, who will go to business college in Montgomery.

Among the Montgomery County teachers who will leave this month for their Winter's work are: Miss Lois Alford, of Pine Level, who will return to Glenwood as teacher of the second grade; Miss Emelyn Reddock, of Fleta, who will go to Deatsville as a member of the high school faculty; Miss Alma Smilie, of Pine Level, who will be in the elementary schools of Montgomery, and Miss Zula McNeill, of Pine Level, who will go to Shelby County; Miss Mona Whatley of Ramer, who will be in the Capitol Heights school; Miss Marie McNeill, of Pine Level, who will teach at Chelsea; Miss Margaret Huey, of Ramer, who will be on the Pine Level faculty; Miss Ella Jones, of Ramer, who will be at Tallassee elementary schools; Miss Minnie Sellers, who will return to State Teachers' College in Jacksonville; P. W. Williams and Miss Glennie Mills of Ramer, who will go to Clio; Miss Clodine Neugent, of Dublin, who will go to Dozier elementary school; Jessie Jackson, of Center Point, who will be principal of the Tuskegee schools; Miss Minnie Irene Spivey, of Pinedale, who will teach in Lafayette; Misses Lillie, Eunice, Valeria and Lottie McInnis, of Pinedale, all of whom will return to the Birmingham schools, and Miss Madell Milligan, of Pisgah, who will go to Brundidge.

The Pine Level Methodist Woman's Missionary Society will meet Tuesday afternoon at the church. Mrs. A. F. Jones will be leader. The series of studies on "Christian Missions in the Orient" will be continued.

The following change in the schedule of preaching services and meetings of the W. M. S. at Ramer Baptist Church is announced. Preaching will be on the second and fourth Sundays morning and night services. The royal service meetings of the W. M. S. will be held on Tuesday after the second Sunday in each month and the business meeting of the W. M. S. will be held on Monday after the fourth Sunday of each month.

The annual cemetery cleaning will be held at Mt. Zion Wednesday morning.

An all-day program at Mt. Zion Baptist Church is announced for the fourth Sunday in September with preaching services in the morning and afternoon by the Rev. Mr. Williams and dinner on the grounds.

A special meeting for the purpose of organizing a Sunday School will be held at Mt. Zion Baptist Church the third Sunday in September.

Union revival services will be held this week at Pike Road High School auditorium with Rev. Robert C. Edge, pastor of Capitol Heights Baptist Church in charge. The services will begin Monday night and continue through Friday.

Members of the 121st Motor Transport Company, Alabama National Guard, returned to Ramer Wednesday from their Summer training camp at Fort McClellan.

Government rental checks will be delivered to Montgomery County farmers this week as follows: Monday, 7 to 8:30 a.m., Carter's store, Beat 18; 9 to 10:30 a.m., Mitylene; 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., Mt. Meigs; 3:30 to 4 p.m., Pike Road; 4:30 – 5 p.m., Stower's store, at Mamie; 5:30 to 6 p.m., Teasley's Mill; Tuesday, 7 to 8:30 a.m., Pine Level; 9 to 10:30 a.m., Dublin; 11 a.m. to noon, Ramer; 1 to 2 p.m., LaPine; 2:30 to 4 p.m., Fleta; 4:30 to 5:30 p.m., Pintlala; 5:30 to 6 p.m., McGhee's Switch; Wednesday, 7 to 8 a.m., Pinedale; 8:30 to 10 a.m., Chesser; 10:30 to 11 a.m., Snowdoun; 2:30 to 4 p.m., Reese's Crossing.

The Ramer Parent Teacher Association will entertain members of the school faculty and the county board of education on the night of Sept 25 with an informal reception.

The Round Table Club of Grady will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. M. M. Tucker as hostess. Response to roll call will be made with names of Alabama educators. Mrs. G. L. Harris will give a paper on "Alabama's Educational Funds" and Mrs. Tucker will lead a round table discussion on "What Is Education?"

Figs that weigh one-fourth pound each are begin harvested by Mrs. T. C. Thompson, of the Smilietown community.

An all day singing will be held at Oak Bowery next Sunday.

The annual leadership school for home demonstration club directors of this county will be held on Monday, Sept. 9 at the administration building of the Department of Education on South Lawrence Street. Miss Dorothy Dean of Auburn, clothing specialist of the Alabama Extension Service will teach the class. Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home agent, will be in charge of all arrangements.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent will go to Auburn Monday to attend a Statewide meeting of county home agents. She will return Saturday.

The annual homecoming will be held at Bethlehem next Sunday.

September 9, 1935

MONTGOMER COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

The monthly leadership school for home demonstration club directors will be held Monday at 10 a.m. at the Administration Building of the Department of Education on South Lawrence Street. The class will be under the supervision of Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington county home agent, and will be taught by Miss Dorothy Dean of Auburn, clothing specialist of the Alabama Extension Service.

The Ramer B. Y. P. U. members were entertained by the Woman's Missionary Society at a swimming party Thursday night at Landers Lake in Highland Home.

Among the college students of the county leaving this week are Joe Dozier, of Mt. Meigs, and Bruce Taylor, of Catoma, who will go to Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn; Elizabeth and Carolyn Pirtle and Lillian Pearson of Hope Hull, who will go to High Point College in High Point, N. C.; Martha Pettus of Hope Hull, who will return to Huntingdon College, and Frances and Margaret Rushton, of Ramer, who will go to the University of Alabama.

Among the teachers who will be leaving at an early date for their schools are Miss Edna Turnipseed, of Downing, who will go the Covington County school system and Miss Evelyn McNeill, of Macedonia who will return to Pleasant Home in Covington County.

The Pintlala Farm Bureau will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday night in the school auditorium with members from Beat 1 in charge of the program. J. C. Lowery of Auburn will be the guest speaker.

Annual revival services are in progress this week at Ramer Baptist Church. The pastor, the Rev. W. H. Cook is being assisted by the Rev. Mr. Avery of Prattville.

The semi-annual cemetery cleaning will be held at Ramer Thursday. Mrs. J. W. Sellers, chairman, has requested that those attending the revival services that day, bring a basket dinner and spread it in the church grove at noon, meeting in an informal gathering at the cemetery in the afternoon.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herman D. Smith, Mrs. C. M. Smith and Mrs. Mark H. Kennick will be joint hostesses.

The Hope Hull baseball team will sponsor a dance Friday night at Pettus's store.

The directors of the Pike Road Civic Club for the ensuing year will be Mrs. H. J. Sullivan, Mrs. Sellers Davis, Mrs. Hattie Johnston and Mrs. Bartlett Goodwin. These directors will represent the club at the monthly leadership schools to be held in Montgomery.

Thee Pine Level Methodist Woman's Missionary Society held its monthly business and mission meeting at the church Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. A. E. Jones was leader of a program on Christian Missions in the Orient.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, returned Saturday from the State home demonstration agents meeting at Auburn, in session there last week.

A union revival meeting held last week at Pike Road High School auditorium, by the Rev. Robert C. Edge, pastor of Capitol Heights Baptist Church of Montgomery, was brought to a close Friday night. All denominational groups of the community cooperated in making the revival a success.

A meeting of all drivers of Montgomery County school transportation trucks will be held Friday at 10 a.m. at Baldwin Junior High School in Montgomery. T. L. Head, superintendent of transportation, will preside. School trucks will be issued this week to their respective drivers.

Mrs. M. M. Tucker entertained members of the Grady Round Table Club at their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at her home. A program on education in Alabama was given with Mrs. A. L. Bigger reading a paper on "Alabama's Educational Needs" and Mrs. Tucker leading a round table discussion which followed. Following the business meeting, Mrs. Tucker directed a social program, in which Mrs. Sallie Athey was contest winner. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughters, Misses Mather and Hortense Tucker. Announcement was made that the next meeting would be held on Sept. 25 at the home of Mrs. W. V. Bell, who would entertain at a reception in honor of the school faculty.

All schools of Montgomery County will open Monday, Sept. 16.

The Epworth League members of the five organizations in the LaPlace Circuit Union held an outing at Shorters Wednesday. Members were present from Mt. Meigs, LaPlace, Neal's Bradford's and Union.

The Ramer Chapter, Future Farmers of America, has entered the annual contest of the National F. F. A. in which it will compete with chapters from all over the United States for a cash prize. The Ramer Chapter is the only entrant from Alabama.

The people of the Mt. Zion community will meet Sunday, Sept. 15 at Mt. Zion Church to organize a Sunday School.

A family gathering at Fleta assembled the following at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reddoch. Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Reddoch and son, Joseph, Jr. of New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Harlin and children, Edgar, Jr., and Valet Ann, of Pike Road, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Reddoch and son, John A., Jr., of Fleta and Miss Emelyn Reddoch, of Fleta.

William Paulk, of Chesser, has been elected reporter of the Montgomery District F. F. A. Association and Alex Chesnutt of LeGrand, has been elected chairman of the program of work committee.

September 16, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

J. C. Lowery of Auburn, agronomist of the Alabama Extension Service, will be the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Mt. Meigs Farm Bureau which will be held Friday night. Officers of the Mt. Meigs organization are: J. R. Relfe, president; Bob Belser, vice-president; Mrs. B. G. Judkins, secretary.

The Catoma Community Club will meet the first Thursday in October at the home of Miss Anna Beyeler, for the first lesson in the extension course being given home demonstration clubs of the county this year.

The Junior Hope Hull Woman's Club will meet Oct 8 at the clubhouse. Annual election of officers will feature the meeting. The September meeting was held Wednesday with Miss Doris H. King as hostess.

The Catoma Parent Teacher Association will hold its next meeting on the night of Oct. 14. Officers for the year are: Mrs. Irby Shittle, president; Mrs. Ed Hall, vice-president; Mrs. C. H. Warner, secretary; Mrs. Edward Young, treasurer, C. H. Warner, auditor. Committee chairmen have been appointed as follows:

Mrs. M. C. Gordon, programs, Mrs. A. P. Gordon, membership, Mrs. Edward Young, hospitality, Miss Sue Jones, publicity, Mrs. Ed Hall, music, Mrs. Mary Revell, P. T. A. magazine.

An all-day meeting will be held at Mt. Zion Baptist Church on the Mt. Zion Road next Sunday. There will be preaching services in the morning and afternoon and a basket dinner will be served at noon.

The Priscilla Sewing Club of Pike Road held its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. W. Fletcher.

Farmers of the county have been notified that a cooperative purchase of 80,000 pounds of Austrian Winter peas for cover crops has been made by the county farm bureau, and that a deposit of one cent per pound will be necessary to have the seed reserved. When the seed arrive about Sept. 25, the orders will be handled in the order in which the deposits were received. Inoculation for the seed can also be procured at the Farm Bureau office.

The Fellowship Club of Pinedale held a social meeting Friday night at the home of Mrs. W. H. Baltzer.

Marvin Berry, merchant of Pinedale, has moved into a new store building completed last week.

The Pike Road Woman's Club will meet Wednesday afternoon. The extension lesson will form the major part of the program. The club directors, Mrs. H. J. Sullivan, Mrs. Hattie Johnston, Mrs. Glenn Jackson and Mrs. Bartlett Goodwin will give a demonstration in color and its application to clothing.

The Smilietown Community Club will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. R. E. Chancey, Mrs. T. V. Reynolds, Mrs. A. T. Beasley and Mrs. Gaston Chancey as hostesses. The club directors, Mrs. Carl Gardner, Mrs. W. W. Payne and Miss Ethel Milligan will give the demonstration lesson. Answer to roll call will be current events.

The LeGrand Community Club will meet Friday afternoon. Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will give the extension lesson.

The Ramer Civic Club will meet Sept. 24. Mrs. S. U. Turnipseed will preside and the club directors, Mrs. J. W. Sellers and Mrs. Byrtram Trotter will be in charge of the program.

The Chesser Community Club will meet Sept. 25. Mrs. Helen Amason will preside and Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington will give the demonstration lesson.

Among the college students who left last week were Paul and Walter Grissett, of LaPine, who returned to the University of Alabama; William and Walter Sellers, of Sellers, who also went to the University, and Josephine Lansden of Highland Home, who went to Alabama College at Montevallo.

The Pine Level Baptist Woman's Missionary Society met Wednesday afternoon at the church with Mrs. John A. Rhodes as director of the program and Mrs. J. M. Townsend presiding. Taking part on the program, the theme of which was "Lifting the Banner Through Stewardship," were, Mrs. Townsend, who conducted the Bible study; Mrs. W. B. Parker, Mrs. Lois Alva McGhee, Miss Mary Frances Guice, Miss Alice Jewel Townsend, Mrs. Eunice McGhee, Mrs. Morris Wingard, Mrs. Ray C. Guice and Miss Evelyn McNeill. A special feature of the program was a song by Mae Guice, Kathryn Rhodes and Hazel Dees, accompanied by Alice Jewel Townsend.

A special program as a welcome to members of the school faculty of Pine Level will be given by the Pine Level Baptist W. M. S. at their regular October meeting. Mrs. Morris Wingard will be hostess and will entertain at her home.

The Ramer Parent Teacher Association will hold its initial meeting on the afternoon of Oct. 2. The members will entertain on Sept. 25 for the teachers and members of the board of education.

The Sellers Civic Club opened its new year Thursday afternoon with the first lesson in the extension series being given by the county agent at the clubhouse. Miss Lillie Mae Findley, president, was in the chair. Roll call was answered with current events and plans were made for the ensuing year.

September 22, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

A meeting of the board of directors of the Montgomery County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs will be held Thursday at 11 a.m. at the home of the county home agent, Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, in Cloverdale. Mrs. J. W. Sellers, of Ramer, will preside. Due to the resignation of Miss Helen Amason, secretary, who has returned to college, a new secretary will be elected at the meeting.

Among the out-of-State guests who visited in the county the past week were Mrs. A. A. Copeland, of Lincoln, Ark., the guest of her sister, Mrs. Laura Sullivan in Smilietown, and Fred McMillan, of Los Angeles, Calif., who with his mother, Mrs. F. M. McMillan, of Union Springs, visited his sister, Mrs. Jerre W. Boyd, of Stones.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will hold its monthly business meeting Monday at 3 p.m. at the church. This week will be observed by members of the society as annual week of prayer, with daily prayer meetings at the church.

The monthly meeting of the Montgomery District F. F. A. Association will be held the night of Oct. 7 at Wetumpka. Delegates will attend from Ramer, Holtville, Eclectic, Wetumpka and Marbury.

The Stones Woman's Club will hold its monthly demonstration meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. O. Hargrove, 10 Sixth Street, Oak Park. The club leaders will give the demonstration in clothing. The monthly cultural program will be held Oct. 11 at the home of Mrs. T. S. Booth.

The Fellowship Club of Pinedale has changed its weekly meetings from Wednesday night to Sunday night. The meetings will be held at 7 p.m. at Pinedale Chapel. The club held a combined business and social meeting Friday night at the home of Mrs. W. H. Baltzer.

The Pinedale Civic Club will hold its fortnightly meeting Tuesday afternoon at Pinedale Chapel. Mrs. James Stoner will direct a program on temperance. Annual fire prevention week will be observed by answering roll call with suggestions for fire prevention.

The Smilietown Community Club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. E. Chancey with approximately 30 members and guests in attendance. Mrs. A. T. Beasley, Mrs. Gaston Chancey and Mrs. T. V. Reynolds were joint hostesses. During a business session, over which Mrs. H. C. Gardner presided, Miss Eunice Ward, county health nurse, was introduced and outlined the objectives of the county health department for the year, with the result that members of the club voted to give Miss Ward a short period on each monthly program for a health talk. Mrs. Harry nation, of Montgomery, county maternity and infant welfare nurse, was also introduction and spoke on the program of her department. The program for the new club year, recently prepared by the executive committee, was read and adopted. Miss Ethel Milligan, assisted by Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. W. W. Payne, gave the first lesson in the leadership series in clothing. Hot chocolate and sandwiches were served.

The LeGrand Community Club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Guy Renfro. Following a business session, in which members voted to give a period of each meeting to a health talk by Miss Eunice Ward, county health nurse, Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home agent, gave a demonstration in color and its relation to dress.

The program committee of the LeGrand Club will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carrie Sharpe for the purpose of preparing the programs for the ensuing club year.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday, meeting with LeGrand Club program committee; Tuesday, Ramer Civic Club, Wednesday, Chesser Community Club; Thursday, meeting of the board of directors of the County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs; Friday, Stones Civic Club, Saturday, office and curb market.

The Chesser Community Club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jesse R. Paulk.

The Ramer Civic Club will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Napoleon Trotter. The new club program will be presented at this time for adoption by the members. The club directors will give a demonstration lesson in clothing.

The Grady Round Table Club will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. V. Bell as hostess. A special program welcoming the members of the school faculty will be given. Roll call will be answered with a poem.

The Ramer Parent Teacher Association will entertain at a reception Wednesday night in honor of members of the school faculty and the County Board of Education and their wives.

The Pike Road Parent Teacher Association will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the high school auditorium.

The Junior Hope Hull Woman's Club will meet Oct. 9 for annual election of officers.

The Catoma Community Club will meet Oct. 3 with Miss Anna Beyeler for the monthly demonstration meeting.

The Catoma Parent Teacher Association will meet on the night of Oct. 14. Mrs. Irby Whittle will preside.

The monthly meetings of the Ramer Methodist Woman's Missionary Society have been changed to Tuesday after the first Sunday. The hour of meeting has been changed to 3 p.m.

The Ramer Methodist Woman's Missionary Society met Monday afternoon at the church parlor with Mrs. Dewey Collier and Mrs. Lily Brooks as hostesses. Mrs. S. P. Turnipseed presided over a business meeting in which reports were given by the following: Mrs. W. G. Sellers, chairman of Christian social relations; Mrs. S. U. Turnipseed, children's work; Mrs. P. H. Harris, Bible study and missions; Mrs. J. C. Sellers, publicity; Mrs. Lily Brooks, World Outlook Magazine; Mrs. J. C. Trotter, hospitality. Mrs. G. H. Dyar was received as a new member. Mrs. Ada Gray and Mrs. A. S. Jones, were announced as hostesses for October and Mrs. W. D. Smith as leader. Mrs. P. H. Harris directed the mission program. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The Ramer Y. W. A. met Monday night at the home of Miss Marjorie Cherry.
Quarterly conference will be held Oct. 11 at Rehoboth Church, near Teasley's.

September 30, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

The Ramer Baptist Church has elected the following delegates to the annual conference of the Montgomery Baptist Association, which will be held in Prattville, Oct. 10-11; M. B. Rushton, C. P. Cosby, Mrs. C. M. Brooks, Mrs. M. H. Kennick, and Mrs. G. L. Cherry. Alternates will be; C. M. Brooks, M. H. Kennick, G. C. McDowell, Mrs. A. L. Carter, and Mrs. M. B. Rushton.

A Sunday School has been organized at Mt. Zion Baptist Church with the following officers and teachers: William Paulk, superintendent; Mary Ella Kennington, secretary-treasurer; Erlene Paulk, Jessie Paulk, and Jessie Martha Gibson, teachers.

The Chesser Community Club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Amason. Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. John Amason, president; Mrs. George Macon, vice-president; Miss Erlene Paulk, secretary; Mrs. J. R. Paulk, treasurer. Following the election, the club program for the year was planned and approved. Miss Eunice Ward, and Mrs. Harry Nation, of the county health department, were present and outlined the objectives of the health program for this year, with the result that club members voted to give a period of each meeting for a health talk. Mrs. Mamie Thorington, county home agent, gave the demonstration lesson. Refreshments were served.

The Montgomery District F. F. A. Association will meet the night of Oct. 7 at Wetumpka with the Wetumpka F. F. A. members as hosts.

Members of the Pinedale Fellowship Club were entertained at an informal party Saturday night at the home of Miss Helen Evans on Court Street Extension.

Margaret Boan, of Pinedale, entertained Friday afternoon at a birthday party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Boan, in celebration of her 12th birthday. Guests included Vastine and Billy Baltzer, Hazel and Annette Hancock, Katherine Simpson, Ray Davidson, Elizabeth Jones, Otha Berry and Betty, Jack and Raymond Boan.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society observed State Mission Day of prayer Thursday at the church. Those taking part on the program were: Mrs. H. D. Smith, Mrs. C. M. Brooks, Mrs. W. H. Cook, Mrs. G. L. Cherry, Mrs. A. I. Carter, Mrs. Nancy Rushton, Mrs. G. C. McDowell, Mrs. J. E. Felton, and Mrs. J. H. Connally. Mrs. M. H. Kennick was leader. The topic was "Our State for Christ."

The Ramer Parent Teacher Association will hold their initial meeting of the present scholastic year Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Mrs. H. V. Bell will preside.

Revival services were held last week at LaPine Baptist Church by the Rev. Mr. Vickery, of Shellhorn.

The LaPine Music Study Club will open its year of study Oct. 9 at the home of Mrs. F. A. Champion. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. H. H. Spear, Mrs. Tyre Spear, Mrs. W. F. Spear, and Miss Annie Lou Spear. Mrs. H. H. Spear will direct the program which will be on "The Music of England."

The program committee of the Pine Level Parent Teacher Association will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. O. Rawls, vice-president, to make the monthly programs for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Alford, of Pine Level, entertained at an informal dinner party Thursday night in honor of their daughter, Miss Lois Alford, who left Saturday for Glenwood to resume her work in the elementary school.

The Pinedale Fellowship Club announces the following speakers for their Sunday night programs at Pinedale Chapel: Oct 6, the Rev. W. H. Kamplain, pastor of Madison Avenue Baptist Church, Montgomery; Oct. 13, James F. Stoner, of Pinedale; Oct. 27, Capitol Heights Fellowship Club.

Mrs. W. O. Hargrove entertained members of the Stones Woman's Club Friday afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. McLure, in Oak Park. At a preliminary business session, members voted to take part in the scholarship fund sponsored by the county council of home demonstration clubs; to take part in the quilt exhibit, also sponsored by the county council; and to give a period of each meeting for a health talk by Miss Eunice Ward, county health nurse. Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, Mrs. Charles Warner and Mrs. Jerre Boyd gave a demonstration lesson in color. Mrs. C. L. Chenault presided. During a social hour the hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. McLure, Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Dodson. Two visitors and 16 members were present. The next social meeting was announced for Oct. 11 at the home of Mrs. T. S. Booth at Stones, and the next demonstration meeting for Oct. 25 at the home of Mrs. Chenault in Maxwell Field.

Members of the Pinedale Civic Club met Tuesday afternoon at Pinedale Chapel with Mrs. Marie Herndon as hostess and Mrs. James Stoner as program director. Mrs. J. W. Rinehart, of Montgomery, was guest speaker, making a talk on temperance. Mrs. Norman Putnam, citizenship chairman, also spoke to the club. The next meeting was announced for Oct. 8 with Mrs. W. H. Baltzer and Mrs. Kendrick as hostesses.

Miss Helen Baltzer, of Pinedale, was hostess at a bridge luncheon Wednesday, her guests being Mrs. Elza Kendrick, Mrs. William Lucas and Mrs. Edwin Fuller.

The LaPine Parent Teacher Association will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Farley Spear, with Mrs. Arden Bradley as joint hostess. Officers for the year are: Mrs. Arden Bradley, president; Mrs. Ralph Davis, vice-president; Mrs. Manford McRee, secretary; Mrs. Glenn Bradley, treasurer.

The LaPine Methodist Woman's Missionary Society will meet Oct. 7 at the home of Mrs. Velma Grissett.

Mrs. W. V. Bell was hostess of the members of the Grady Round Table Club at her home Wednesday afternoon, entertaining in honor of the members of the school faculty, Mrs. W. K. Naftel, Mrs. Lillian Collier and Miss Georgia Collier. Roll call was answered with poems of school days. A reading by Mrs. A. L. Bigger, Jr., and a vocal solo, "The Girl Across the Aisle," by Mrs. T. S. Skipper, were on the program. Old-fashioned games and a contest in which Mrs. G. L. Harris was prize winner were part of the entertainment. Each honoree was presented by the hostess with a potted plant for her school room. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Janet Bell.

The Catoma Community Club will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Anna Beyeler.

The Catoma P.T.A. will meet the night of Oct. 14 at the school.

The Pine Level Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will hold its monthly meeting Oct. 16 with Mrs. Morris Wingard as hostess.

Quarterly conference will be held at Rehoboth Oct. 17.