REA MEETING: Several hundred Montgomery County subscribers to the Dixie Electric Cooperative are making plans to go to Union Springs on Aug. 7 to attend the 12th annual meeting. In addition to the election of officers and directors, the subscribers will hear progress and financial reports, and a discussion of the Alabama REA telephone bill by the author, Sen. LK Andrews, of Union Springs. The meeting will open at 9 am.

They will also vote on a resolution to authorize the board of trustees to raise the debt limit of the cooperative from $1,500,000 to $5,000,000. As usual, there will be an "electric fair," and other entertainment.

At the last report a year ago, the cooperative was serving 2,500 consumers on 850 miles of line in six counties. Expansion of the service in the last year to serve 300 additional customers will be reported by Manager John L Griswold in his annual report.

MONDAY MEMO: Rains Wednesday and Thursday in parts of rural Montgomery County brought badly needed moisture to pastures, but were too late to save much of the corn. George P Walthall, local soil conservationist, says farmers in this county are missing some good local grazing and hay by not having kudzu or sericea lespedeza fields since both will stand a "tremendous amount" of dry weather. According to Walthall, more than half the county is adapted to growing these two crops, and farmers having land suited to them should take steps to beat future drouths by planting these cover crops. Interested farmers can get help in seeding these and other soil conserving crops by applying to the soil conservation office in the courthouse.

HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENTS ELECT MRS. MAUDE WOODFIN

Mrs. Maude Woodfin, Montgomery County home demonstration agent, is the newly-elected president of the Alabama Association of County Home Demonstration Agents. Mrs. Woodfin has been in Montgomery County since Jan. 1, 1949, and has been associate agent from that date until July 1, 1950, when she succeeded Mrs. Mamie C Thorington, retired.

The daughter of a former pastor of Dexter Avenue Methodist Church, the Rev. JB Cumming, Mrs. Woodfin is a graduate of Huntingdon College and a former home economics teacher. She finished elementary school in Birmingham and high school at Florala.

After finishing college, she taught at Guntersville for a year as home economics teacher in Marshall County High School and then had four years as vocational home economics teacher at Union Springs High School, followed by one year as home agent in Perry County. In 1934, she married Richard Woodfin, and gave up demonstration work because at that time married women were barred. In 1936, she became a home supervisor for the Farmers Home Administration (Farm Security Administration), a position which she held 11 years. In August, 1947, when the rules were changed providing for married women to hold home demonstration jobs. Mrs. Woodfin returned as assistant home agent in Dallas County. She was transferred to Perry County as home agent in January, 1948, and remained there until she came to Montgomery County.

At present, Mrs. Woodfin has under her supervision 21 home demonstration clubs with an enrollment of around 500 rural and suburban women. She also supervises girls' 4-H club work, which is directed by Miss Louise Landham, assistant home agent.

FARM MEETINGS: A series of meetings in the county have been planned by the Montgomery County Mobilization Committee to give farmers an opportunity to participate in the National War Mobilization Board's agricultural program for 1952.

The primary purpose of the meetings will be to get farmers and their wives to make recommendations for any changes they desire or believe will make a better farm program for 1952.

Tentative dates are: Aug. 21, Catoma schoolhouse, 10:30 am; Ramer schoolhouse, 2:30 pm; Pintlala schoolhouse, 8 pm.

Aug. 22, Pike Road schoolhouse, 10:30 am; Pine Level schoolhouse, 2:30 pm.

Aug. 23, Pinedale Chapel, 10:30 am.

Representatives of Federal agencies will be present to hear the recommendations and to give any necessary explanations.

The meetings were planned at a called meeting of the County Mobilization Committee Friday at the courthouse. Chairman Carrol B Mosley presided, and others present were: Secretary John W Amason;

Lem A Edmonson, county agent; WF Donahue, Bureau of Animal Industry; WJ Watson, Forestry Service; Riley Tyre, CN Henley, and HE Rowe, community committeemen; MR Browder, vocational agriculture teacher, Ramer; Jack K Kirkland, veterans training program; CG Deas, National Farm Loan Association; WE Elsberry, Farmers Home Administration; John A Reddoch, Production and Marketing Administration; EO Hall, Rural Electric Administration; BD Ledbetter, Soil Conservation Service; AJ Bigger, Jr., Montgomery County Farm Bureau; HC Farquhar and Bob I Bright, assistant county agents; Mrs. WS Newell, president, Montgomery County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs.

Similar meetings are being held in every county in every state in the United States. When the series is completed, the farmers' recommendations in each community meeting will be sent their State War Mobilization Committee, which will in turn send them to the National War Mobilization Board for study in preparing the 1952 agricultural program.

All farmers of the county are urged to attend the meeting most convenient for them, and to make any recommendations which they think will benefit the agricultural program for next year.

MOBILIZATION FOR DEFENSE THEME OF HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUBS

The theme of the home demonstration club program in Montgomery County for the new club year will be "Mobilization For Defense."

In order to map programs for the new year, Mrs. WS Newell, calling a meeting of the board of directors for Monday, Aug. 20. The meeting will be at 10 am in the air-conditioned auditorium of the Alabama Power Company.

The clubs in the council have 10 demonstration meeting annually between Dec. 1 and June 30. A group of leaders from each club attends leadership schools taught by specialists from Auburn, and later they take the lesson to the individual club members at the regular meetings.

The directors Monday will discuss the demonstrations available for 1951-52 and select what they wish to study. Auburn specialists say they have already had requests from all parts of the state for lessons in foods, management of time and money, public affairs and mobilization of the family. The specialists took this into consideration in preparing the demonstrations they have to offer.

The available list, from which the Montgomery County directors will make their selection, includes: consumer education, foods and nutrition, food preservation, clothing and handicrafts, home furnishings, home management and child care and family life.

A large group of studies in each category permits them a wide range of choice.

At the directors' meeting, plans will also be made for sending representatives to the annual meeting of the Alabama Home Demonstration Council and the Alabama Farm Bureau at Biloxi in November.

The directors will make plans Monday for the participation of members in the pageant at the annual Dairy Calif. Show in September at the State Coliseum.

And lastly, they will discuss sending two officers from each club to the chain store dinner to be sponsored on Oct. 9 by Montgomery chain stores honoring clubs in Montgomery, Autauga, Lowndes and Elmore Counties.

Julian Elgin, vice-president of the Montgomery County Farm Bureau, will discuss plans for the annual meeting and barbecue scheduled for Sept. 12 at hope Hull club house.

Discussion will also be held of the statewide contest to select the outstanding home demonstration club and the awards to the winning club.

FARMERS TO MAKE SUGGESTIONS ON WMB AGRICULTURAL PLAN

A series of meeting over the county to give farmers as opportunity to make recommendations for the National War Mobilization Board's agricultural program for 1952 will be held this week under sponsorship of the County Mobilization Committee.

Chairman CB Mosley of the county committee urges every farmer to attend the meeting most convenient for him and be prepared to make any recommendation which he thinks will improve the operation of the agricultural program. Representatives of the various Federal agencies will be present to hear the discussions and to give any necessary explanations. Farm women as well as men are urged to attend and participate in the discussions.

When the series is completed, a copy of the recommendations will be sent to the State Mobilization Committee, which will in turn send it to the National War Mobilization Board. Similar meetings to those planned for Montgomery County are being held in every county in every state in the union. Findings from all of these meetings will be used in mapping the 1952 program.

Chairman Mosley and members of his committee feel sure some farmers have suggestions that would be of benefit to the farm program.

COUNTY TO NAME DAIRY QUEEN; DROUTH DESTROYS CORN CROP

A series of meetings with county 4-H Club groups to select Montgomery County's Dairy Queen is planned for the first two weeks in September by Bob I Bright and Miss Louise Landham, directors of boys' and girls' club work respectively.

At the meetings, plans will be made for each club to select a Dairy Queen, and a county queen will be chosen from the club queens on Sept. 18 to reign at the Montgomery County Dairy Show on Sept. 19.

The county queen will also compete with other county queens for the title of district Dairy Queen, and the privilege of reigning at the district Dairy Show at the State Coliseum on Sept. 20-21. Winner of the district title will be given a trip to the State Fair in Birmingham.

The dairy shows are sponsored by the Montgomery Chamber of Commerce.

Candidates for the queen's title will be judged on the number of years they have been in club work, the projects carried out, number of club and county offices held, and prizes and honors won.

A tentative list of dates for the individual club meetings is: Pine Level, Sept. 6, 9 am; Chisholm, Sept. 7, 9 am; Pinedale, Sept. 7, 4 pm; Ramer, Sept. 10, 9 am; Pike Road, Sept. 11, 9 am; Chisholm, senior club, Sept. 12, 4 pm; Montgomery County 4-H Club, Sept. 12, 7:30 pm, at Snowdown Clubhouse; Catoma, Sept. 13, 9 am; Pintlala, Sept. 14, 9 am; Dalraida, Sept 17, 4 pm; Snowdown junior club, Sept. 18, 4 pm, at Snowdown Clubhouse.

MONDAY MUSINGS: Fifty-seven more rural families in this county were given service last week by Bell Telephone Company. They live in the Pike Road-Cecil-Mathews area. Meanwhile, residents of the Ramer-Grady-Dublin-Pine Level area in Montgomery County and Highland Home-Bradleyton-LaPine area in Crenshaw County look on enviously while they hopefully await word from the REA in WAhington granting a loan to build a telephone cooperative.

Sampey Memorial Baptist Church in Ramer, Mt. Hill Baptist Church in Bethlehem and Friendship Baptist Church near Grady are all without a preach. Smilietown Community Club has advanced its meeting to Sept. 13 because of a conflict on the regular date. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. LS Smilie as scheduled in the yearbook. Mt. Carmel Methodist Church and Sandy Ridge Methodist Church are joining forces with other churches in the circuit to modernize the parsonage kitchen, and has painted the woodwork, put in new floor covering and an electric range. Sandy Ridge congregation is improving the building's exterior. Snowdown Club has advanced the regular meeting to Sept. 11. Home demonstration clubs will resume regular demonstration programs this month after a summer recess. The lesson for September will be "Family Goals," a demonstration prepared by Elta Majors, Alabama Polytechnic Institute Extension Service specialist. Everybody that can spare a dollar is urged to give it to the school lunchroom fund for underprivileged children. The Montgomery County bookmobile will not run this week.

CROP PICTURE: A good cotton crop is the only bright spot in the county agricultural picture. With one exception, all county farmers reporting to this column say corn can be written off as a total loss. The exception is Mrs. Hub Athey of Ramer, who planted early in March, and reports the best corn crop she ever had. EO Hall, Cecil Merchant, reports a good corn crop "grown in Macon County." On the other hand, Rex Underwood, Ada, who had prospects of 75 bushels to the acre, says his corn crop is a total loss.

Hiram Dowe, Davenport, says his tenants are picking a bale of cotton to the acre in the first picking. There will be little more to open, however. He rents out about 100 acres that is planted to cotton. Reports are coming in steadily of ponds drying up and trees dying. PW Williams, Ramer, reported 15 trees in one area dead on his farm and water enough in his ponds to last about 10 longer. Hundreds of cattle are being hauled to the stockyards because there is neither water nor grass for them.

Some families have been hauling water for a month or more for household use. Others have dug their wells deeper and get along by using water sparingly. Nearly all wells in the Ramer-Dublin area are affected and springs that never went dry before have quit running. Streams, like ponds, have dried up.

PTA GROUPS WILL IMPROVE 2 COUNTY SCHOOL LUNCHROOMS

Improvements for school lunchrooms have been adopted by two Montgomery County Parent-Teacher organizations as major projects for the current year.

Pike Road PTA has chosen the purchase of paper napkins and a napkin dispenser for the use of the children eating in the cafeteria as one of its goals for 1951-52. Ramer PTA has chosen improvement of the physical appearance of the lunchroom, additional storage space, and needed equipment as its program.

In order to raise funds for this project, Ramer PTA is planning a series of benefit affairs. The first will be a chicken supper Tuesday night at the cafeteria. Plates will be served from 6 till 8 pm for $1, all proceeds to go to the lunchroom improvement fund. Since everything for the supper has been contributed by patrons and friends of the school, all proceeds will be net profit.

The chicken supper was planned and will be carried out by the finance and budget committee, of which Principal Truman Cummings is chairman. Other members are: Miss Lillie Mae Findley, Sellers; Mrs. LH Huey, Ramer; Mrs. WB Spear, LaPine; Mrs. WA Guy, Mt. Carmel; Mrs. LJ McKinley, Sr., Grady; Miss Louise Kelly, Ramer; Mrs. SE Armistead, Ramer, PTA president, is an ex-officio member.

BRANNAN'S VISIT: CB Mosley, chairman of the county PMA committee, calls the attention of farmers to the visit here on Wednesday of Secretary of Agriculture Charles F Brannan, and urges that they come to the City Auditorium at 8 pm to hear his speech on mobilization of agriculture for defense. All farmers, Farm Bureau members and businessmen are invited and all members of the Montgomery County Agricultural Mobilization Committee are requested to be present. The visit of Secretary Brannan is sponsored by the State Agricultural Mobilization Committee, which will be holding a meeting in Montgomery.

Chairman Mosley also calls the attention of farmers to the controls going into effect on Oct. 1 on steel, copper and aluminum and urges them to anticipate their needs for construction and place orders early with PMA committee, which will process the applications. Blanks may be had from the State PMA office in the Old Post Office or from any field office of the National Production Authority. Information on the controls may be had at the county PMA office. Any farm construction involving the controlled materials, such as fences, nails, staples, silos, barns, well equipment, electrical wiring and plumbing, steel roofing and siding, barbed wire, etc., as well as dwellings, may be affected.

MONDAY MEMO: Fairview Methodist Church, on old Selma road, has built a two-story annex containing a recreation room, kitchen, and lounges downstairs, and Sunday school rooms upstairs. The WSCS has chosen as a current project the furnishing of the kitchen.
