ANNUAL ACHIEVEMENT DAY HELD

MRS. JACK HAILEY JR. NEW PRESIDENT OF HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUBS COUNCIL

By Mildred Smith

Mrs. Jack Hailey Jr., president of Ridgecrest Civic Club, was elected president of the Montgomery County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs Thursday at the annual Achievement Day program at Camp Grandview. Mrs. Hailey who succeeds Mrs. James Geesey of Pike Road, will hold the office for two years. Officers chosen for the biennium were: Mrs. I. D. McClurkin Jr., Pike Road Morning Civic Club, first vice president; Mrs. E. E. Broach, Perry Hill Club, third vice president; Mrs. E. E. Allred, Stones Civic Club, secretary; Mrs. Stanley Boswell, Snowdoun Woman's Club parliamentarian; Mrs. W. W. Enzor, Pinedale Civic Club, chaplain.

Highlights of the program were a demonstration in holiday flower arrangements by Sonny Paterson and Mrs. Elizabeth S. Gresham of Rosemont Gardens, a report on the convention of the National Association of Home Demonstration Agents by Mrs. Charles N. Putnam who attended the convention in Lexington Ky.; the recognition of 68 club members who had a perfect attendance record for the year; and a summary of accomplishments and objectives by the retiring president, Mrs. Geesey.

One hundred and 50 members in attendance were saddened at the close of the meeting when the oldest in the group, 84-year old Mrs. J. W. Sellers of Ramer, lost her footing and broke her hip in the fall. She is now a patient at St. Margaret's Hospital.

HERE AND THERE: Mrs. Mary Virginia Milligan, chairman for the homecoming barbecue at Montgomery County High School Friday night, has asked this column to convey her appreciation to everyone who helped in making it one of the most successful the P-TC has ever sponsored. . . Bids will be opened on Nov. 15 by the U.S. Engineers in Mobile for a home site located on top of a hill in the Davenport community which is being offered for sale to the highest bidder . . . The location is one of the prettiest along Mobile Highway . . . The passing of Mrs. Allen F. Frazer in Smilietown last week marked one of the last links between the present and the pioneer settlement of that part of Montgomery County . . . Mrs. Frazer came, when a very small child, with her parents, the late Rev. and Mrs. Jack Smilie, to the homestead in which she spent her last days . . . A farm was cleared from the woods and as the Smilie children grew up and married, the Smilietown community was established, most of them electing to build near their parents . . . Mrs. Frazer reared her family in Montgomery but after her husband's retirement, moved back to the old home and remained there until her death.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT HERE WINS U.S. HONOR

By Mildred Smith

The Montgomery County Health Dept. has been awarded a certificate of appreciation by the U. S. Public Health Service for its role in the past three years in collecting information on the problem of air pollution, Dr. Douglas L. Cannon, health officer, reported Saturday.

According to Dr. Cannon, the award is signed by Dr. Luther L. Terry, surgeon general of the U. S. Public Health Service, and Vernon G. MacKenzie, chief of the Division.

In his announcement, Dr. Cannon reports that the Montgomery County Health Dept. is one of 250 stations in the United States participating in the National Air Sampling Network of the Public Health Service. Samples of pollutants collected in this program under the direction of C. E. Rittenberry, chief of the County Health Dept.'s division of sanitation, are sent for analysis to Robert A. Taft Sanitary Engineering Center maintained by the U. S. Public Health Service in Cincinnati. The data obtained help to explain the nature and extent of air pollution problems throughout the country, Dr. Cannon states.

Accepting the award for the county health department, Dr. Cannon said: "The air we breathe must be carefully examined if we are to live and work in an environment pleasant and healthful. We are proud to be a part of the national effort to meet the challenge of air pollution."

AROUND THE COUNTY: Joe L. Hall, past president of the Montgomery County Farm Bureau, and a prominent dairy-man, purchased five registered Ayrshire heifers from a display sent to the South Alabama Fair by the Ayrshire Breeders Association of Brandon, Vt. And transferred title to four of his children . . . One heifer was given by Hall to his son, Lasli; another to a daughter, Patsy, and a third to another daughter, Sarah Ellen . . . The remaining two were given to Hall's youngest daughter, three-year old Cynthia Henry . . . The Ayrshires, which came from prominent herds in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, have been added to the Hall's herd of 200 Guernserys . . . Jimmy McClendon of Snowdown is at Jackson Hospital for treatment of his eye, injured in a farm accident . . . Mrs. T. C. Embry is convalescing at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. P. QUALITY, BETTER MARKETING PLANNED

By Mildred Smith

Improvement of quality, more efficiency in production, and better marketing methods have been set up as long time objectives for beef cattle producers in Montgomery County.

The objectives, set up by the livestock committee of the Montgomery County Extension Council, call specifically for increased knowledge of the value of breeding for fall calving; continued improvement in the quality of cattle through selection and through better sires; more emphasis on the importance of a good health program as a factor for increasing profits; and the value of quality feeds.

The objectives were set up at a meeting of the committee attended by Haynes Green, Chairman; Philip Mangum, Grady Hall, E. P. Toulmin, Bob Gurley, Phillip Poundstone; and County Agents Tom P. McCabe and Ray Helms.

Dr. Fleetwood Hines, assistant veterinarian, Agricultural Research Service, USDA, met with the committee and gave a report on the cattle health problem in Montgomery County.

COURTHOUSE TIDBITS: Four courthouse employees lost members of their families during November . . . Mrs. Mary Phelps, Probate Office, lost her brother, LaRue Horn . . . Mrs. Eleanor Horn . . . MON-CRE CHANGES NUMBERING SYSTEM; SUBSCRIBERS LISTED AMOUNTS
TO 760

By Mildred Smith

The Mon-Cre Telephone Cooperative, which announced at the weekend a new system of numbering in connection with an expansion program started in May, lists 760 subscribers.

The new system will use seven digits instead of the former exchange designations of JU and JE.

Mon-Cre Telephone Cooperative began operations Oct. 29, 1954, with only 174 subscribers. The number has more than quadrupled in its eight years of operation.

Included in the expansion program were a new warehouse at the headquarters in Ramer; new switchboard equipment in the LaPine and Ramer exchanges double the size of the former equipment, and enlargement of the Pine Level exchange switchboard; construction of new lines to serve 176 subscribers and reinforcement of existing lines heavily overloaded. The new lines serve subscribers from Macedonia to China Grove, from LaPine to Bradleyton and Helicon, from Ramer to Ada and others on the Houlton road.

Information on the new numbers will be given by the Southern Bell long distance operator in Montgomery, who has a complete listing. Mon-Cre Cooperative has a contract with Bell to furnish information service.

MERRY CHRISTMAS, HAPPY NEW YEAR

By Mildred Smith

Because this is a season of remembrances this columnist would like to send a personal note of appreciation to the friends and relatives from around the world who remembered with Christmas greetings.

Dear "Little Joe" and Hortence Tucker McCoy: It always warms the heart to hear from you two whom I have loved since you were little children and before you even knew each other. May you have a happy holiday at your home in Panama City, Fla.

Dear Prentice and Ruby Mae Miller: Your card with Sherry's picture "then and now" was a joy to receive. Do you remember that Sherry came when I was a student at Emory University and roomed at your home? That was a long time ago, 1939, I believe.

Dear Dollie Nuckolls Clements: Your note brought back the days I taught in Lanett High School where you and your husband teach now. Your pupils must be the children (or maybe grandchildren) of the boys and girls who were in my classes. Did any of them ever tell you about the time the senior class (I was with them) played hooky on April 1 and had a picnic in the mountains?

Dear Warren and Mary Paul Smith: I was delighted to get the pictures of my great nieces and nephew. It is the next best thing to a trip to Kingsport, Tenn. To see them and the little new great nephew that arrived Dec. 10.

Dear Jim Boyd: The ham you sent from the First National Bank teamed perfectly with a dozen fresh eggs from Joe Ben Greer, the poultry man, for a pre-Christmas breakfast.

Dear Myrtice Tyson: I hope 1963 will be a brighter year for you, that son, John, is going to be a glowing light for Mobile County in the Legislature, and that husband James Jordan will be in better health.

Dear Annie Myrtle Brooks: Thank you for the greetings which you never fail to send from Dothan where you are a registered nurse.

Dear Vencille Webster: A thousand thanks for your helpfulness all through the year with the Hope Hull club and community news. May the new year be bright one for you.

Dear Lena Outlaw: Your card came from Japan well ahead of Christmas and it warmed my heart to know that a former Highland Home girl remembered way off in a foreign country.

Dear Carolyn Hancock Yarbrough: I'm glad you are enjoying all the joyous things of the Yule season in Houston, Texas, but especially glad you pause to think of your friends and relatives, but the quality of your friendship seemed every finer when your letter arrived with the Blue and Gray tickets. Many of us look forward to your coming from Tuscaloosa to the game and seeing you personally.

Dear Mom and Pop Pillion: All your friends are distressed to know that Pop is in the Fairhope hospital, particularly at the Christmas season. No Christmas dinner will ever taste better than the sandwiches you served at the Hill Building.

Dear Furman Cauthen: May your work as pastor of Silver Spring (Maryland) Church of Christ bring you much happiness in 1963. The folks at Highland Home and Montgomery watch your career with interest.

Dear Robert Bugg: Notes like yours from the Highland Home FFA Chapter are one of the things that make it possible to keep on "keeping on." Writing articles about the FFA was a pleasure and I hope we can work together again in 1963.

Dear John and Siska Milligan: Thanks for the Christmas letter telling all about your new grandson, born to Bill and Lieser Milligan Colburn in Orlando Oct. 1, and about the family reunion planned for Christmas.

Dear Father Wegner: All gifts from me to Boys Town are from the heart. If they help build character, that is all I ask.

Dear Staff of Agricultural Chemical Service Co.: Thank you for sending Christmas wish and for the copy of Henry Van Dyke's "Keeping Christmas." I have read it to refresh my memory, not having read it before in a long time because I had given my Van Dyke book to a Sunday School library.

Dear Lillie Brock and Homer Tucker: You'll never know what it means to have you say my Dear Carole Patterson: I'm glad you enjoyed the staff party at my house. I missed you the years you didn't make it.

Dear Atty. John Kohn: I'm still chuckling over your remark about my giving the Board of Revenue "commonsense advice" from time to time. Enjoy your daughter's visit from New York and I hope all of you will enjoy the spiced pears from my house to your house.

Dear Kettye Brown McIntyre: I hope the people in Clewiston, Fla. Have learned to love Pintlala's retired teacher as much as the home folks in Montgomery County did. Best of everything for 1963.

Dear Beatrice Hicks Alderson: Here's hoping Santa will carry off the flu germs and leave your children well and happy for your Christmas tree in Berkeley, Calif. Dublin has been terribly cold--only degrees above zero--but we are warming up now.

Dear Sandy Bahn: Congratulations on the new job you write about so enthusiastically with the Volkswagen agency in New York. You wouldn't know Maxwell AFB now, it has grown so much since you were a cadet there in 1943. I hope the pecans I sent reached you safely at your home in Chappaqua, N.Y.

Dear Ed Young Jr.: May your internship at St. Vincent's be a happy adventure and the way not too far off when you hang out your M.D. sign and set up medical practice. Maybe I'll be your first patient.

Dear Jim and Julia Strickland: The picture of your little boys will be added to my picture "progress report" of children next to my heart. It is a wonderful way of recording their growth from year to year.

Dear Fran and Patt Culotta: It is a long way to Pittsburgh, Pa., but when I took over the pictures of your sons, Charles and George, I feel like you had been here. Their pictures every Christmas have made it possible to keep up with their growth but it is still hard to believe they are nearly grown.

A merry Christmas to the following others who sent Yule greetings: The Central Alabama Crippled Children's Clinic staff; the Alabama FFA staff; the Alabama-west Florida Methodist Conference Board of Education; Maylon and Viola Nicholson; Beverly and Morris Dees; Mrs. Lillie Howard Ford, Montgomery, Mary Louise and Frank Bevis of Gadsden; Margaret and Joe Sellers of Ramer; Bobby Cook, Ramer; the Roy Johnston's, Grady; the First National Bank, Montgomery; Emma Jean Swift and daughters, Cecil; Donald and Lyn Hicks, Dublin; Russell and Sara Cowles, Ramer; Leon and Ouida Hicks, Montgomery; Marguerit and Glenn Smith, Montgomery; Martha and Hamp Benbow and Mrs. Myrtle Broach, Pine Level; Lillie Mae Findley, Sellers; Dr. and Mrs. Guy Phelps, Montgomery; Margaret Huey, Mobile; Emma Lee and Gilbert Sellers, Ramer; the Herman Broadways, Pine Level; Alfred and Sara McDowell, Augusta, GA.; Joe and Guinn Kennedy, Centreville; Elizabeth and Stuart Stephenson, Montgomery; Bud and Mildred Huey, Montgomery; Ben and Khadra Spear, LaPine; Rufus and Janetta Crosby and daughters Lamar road; Gilbert Sellers Jr. and family, Ramer; Cecil and Hattie Mae Spear, LaPine; Katie and Fred Thornton, Montgomery; Montgomery County Library staff; Nell and Enoch Johnson, Montgomery; Montgomery Farmers Cooperative, Snowdown; Bill and Virginia Kendrick, Montgomery; Mr. and Mrs. T.
