

October 14, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

The October meeting of the Pine Level Baptist Woman's Missionary Society was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Morris Wingard. A program on "Youth" was given, the principal feature being a playlet, "We Must Not Fail," with the following characters: Lela McGhee, Morris Wingard, Mae Guice, Lois Alva McGhee, Sarah McCormick, Edna McCormick, Vivian Parker, and Evelyn McNeill. The meeting was opened with a song, "Faith of Our Father," followed by a devotional service conducted by Mrs. Ray C. Guice. Others on the program were: Mrs. J. M. Townsend, Miss Guice Stevens, Mrs. Eunice McGhee, and Alice Jewel Townsend and Mary Frances Guice, who gave a dialogue, "Talking Across a Century." The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ray Guice, who will serve both as hostess and program chairman. At the close of the program, a business session was held, after which cake and hot chocolate were served by the hostess.

Quarterly conference will be held Thursday at Rehoboth church by the churches of the Ramer charge. The LaPlace charge will hold quarterly conference at LaPlace Wednesday.

The Catoma Parent-Teacher Association will meet Monday night at the school auditorium. The guest speaker will be Dr. W. R. Harrison, superintendent of schools. Hostesses will be Mrs. J. C. Whittle, Mrs. Lewis Felder, Mrs. Edward Young, Mrs. J. H. Hall and Mrs. G. h. Warner.

The Snowdown Woman's Club held its monthly extension meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Fiser. Mrs. H. G. Mashburn presided over a business session, in which Miss Eunice Ward, county health nurse, was introduced and spoke to the club on some of the activities of the health department and the program of the department for this year. Members of the club voted to invite Miss Ward to speak monthly at the extension meetings. Mrs. Henry Stanley, club director, gave a demonstration lesson in choosing one's wardrobe. Twenty members and visitors were present. At the close of the meeting the hostess served a salad plate.

The Pintlala boys 4-H Club has been reorganized with officers and members as follows: Reynolds Suggs, president; Will Haden Norman, secretary-treasurer; Harding Huffman, reporter; Warren Bozeman, song leader; Rawdon Barnes, Robert R. Beckwith, Thomas Chesnutt, Llewellyn Duggar, J. B. Davis, Nathan Davis, Marvin Davis, Billy Davis, Baxter Dean, Jesse Calvin Edge, Claude Findley, S. J. Guy, Jr., J. L. Hall, Virgil Hall, Frank Hawthorne, Richard Hall, William Hadden, Harry Hadden, Duncan Head, Henderson Brannon, Arthur W. Marxer, Robert Alex McCall, Wilbur Neal, Eugene Neal, Albert Rhodes, J. L. Richardson, Robert Sharpe, George Burma Suggs, Reynolds Suggs, Hugh Suggs, James Guy Scaife and Douglas Talley.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday, special meeting with a group of Dublin women; Tuesday, forenoon, Ramer junior 4-H Club; afternoon, LaPine; Wednesday, Pike Road Woman's Club; Thursday, forenoon, Pine Level 4-H Club; afternoon, Smilietown Community Club; Friday, LeGrand Community Club; Saturday, office and curb market.

The Pike Road Woman's Club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. McClurkin with Mrs. H. B. Fannin as assistant hostess.

The Smilietown Community Club will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Carl Gardner, Mrs. James Kirksey, Miss Milligan and Mrs. J. M. Chandler as hostesses. The club leaders will give a demonstration lesson. Roll call will be answered with current events.

The Sellers Civic Club has announced the following hostesses for the year: November, Mrs. Desma Brady; December, Mrs. J. D. Boyd; January, Mrs. Frank Morriss; February, Mrs. Will Guy; March, Mrs. David Rufus Findley; April, Mrs. R. S. Hataway; May, Mrs. S. J. Guy; June, Mrs. Joe Scaife; July county club rally; August, annual picnic; September, entire club. The monthly programs through March will be demonstration lessons given by the leaders. In April the program will center around a discussion of flowers, and roll call will be made the occasion for a flower exchange. In May, Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home agent, will give a book review and in June, the program will be on "Decorative Objects in the Home." At the November meeting, a special feature will be a talk by Miss Evelyn Brady on the origin of Thanksgiving.

The Stones Woman's Club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. L. Chanault in Maxwell Field. A health talk was given by Miss Eunice Ward, county health nurse. Plans were made for a club exhibit at the quilt show to be sponsored by the County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs on Oct. 24-25.

The Pinedale Fellowship Club met Friday night at Pinedale Chapel and made plans for a Halloween party on Oct. 29. Joh Herndon presided. A social meeting was held after the business session.

The young people of Pinedale community gave a wiener roast Saturday night. Eula Bell Duncan and Evelyn Hancock were in charge.

The Sellers Civic Club met Thursday afternoon at the clubhouse with Mrs. Frank Morriss as hostess. The demonstration lesson in choosing a wardrobe was cleverly given in dialogue form by Mrs. J. D. Boyd, Miss Evelyn Brady and Mrs. Noble. Miss Lillie Mae Findley presided during a business session in which it was voted to give a brief period of each meeting for a health talk by Miss Eunice Ward, county health nurse. Visitors were: Mrs. H. V. Bell, of Ada, Mrs. May and Mrs. Bedsole. During a social hour, a salad plate was served by the hostess.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will meet Tuesday afternoon for the monthly Royal Service program. Mrs. G. C. McDowell and Mrs. W. V. Neville will be hostesses and Mrs. Albert Jones will be leader.

Etta B. Smith Chapter No. 290, Order of Eastern Star, at Ramer, met Wednesday afternoon and made plans for sending official delegates to the Gran Chapter in Montgomery Oct. 15-17.

Mrs. T. B. Johnson of Georgiana celebrated her 81st birthday anniversary Sunday at the home of her daughter. Mrs. Gene Boan (Ludie Johnson), in Pinedale, with a family reunion. Forty-one members of the family were present, including her six children, Mrs. C. G. Freeman, of Pensacola, Mrs. R. G. Nall, of Montgomery, of Montgomery, Mrs. D. W. Black, of Georgiana, Mrs. Acre Rigsby, of Georgiana, T. M. Johnson, of Montgomery and Louisville, Ky. And Mrs. Boan. Mrs. Johnson was the recipient of many birthday gifts.

The LeGrand Community Club will meet Friday afternoon.

October 21, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

The Montgomery County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs will hold a quilt exhibit in Montgomery Thursday and Friday. Every club in the council will contribute to the exhibit, funds from which will be used to create a scholarship loan fund for a Montgomery County girl. Admission will be 25 cents. The exhibit will be held in the store building at the corner of Lee and Church Street.

The Fellowship Club of Pinedale has elected the following committee to make plans for a Halloween party. Entertainment, John Herndon; Henry Turner, decorations; Evelyn Hancock, James Duncan, Invitations; Annie Mae Duncan, Billy Jones; refreshments, Eula Bell Duncan, Elizabeth Jones, Katherine Simpson.

The meeting of the Chesser Community Club has been postponed until Oct. 30 because of the quilt show. Mrs. Jesse R. Paulk will be hostess.

The annual homecoming will be held at Mt. Carmel Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday, Oct. 27.

The Ramer B. Y. P. U. members were entertained at a wiener roast Thursday night by Mark H. Kennick, leader. New officers have been elected as follows by the organization: Edna Connaly, president; Prayor Cosby, vice-president; Martha Helen Brooks, secretary-treasurer; Frances Connally and Loretta Kennick, group captains; Marjorie Cherry, pianist. There are 16 members on roll.

Etta B. Smith Chapter No. 290, Order of Eastern Star at Ramer was represented at the Grand Chapter in Montgomery last week by the following: Mrs. Mattie Brooks, Mrs. Pauline Curtis, Mrs. Corrie Schmidt, Miss Margaret Schmidt, Mrs. Martha Benbow and R. C. Daniel.

The Dramatic Club of Montgomery County High School has elected the following officer: Bannie Dillard, president; Mary Sue Cannon, secretary; Ben Wilson, treasurer.

The Pinedale Fellowship Club met on Friday night at the home of Elizabeth Jones. A program was given with Eula Bell Duncan in charge. Afterwards a social meeting was held and refreshments served.

The Round Table Club of Grady will meet Oct. 30 with Mrs. Jimmie Tucker as hostess. A program on transportation will be given and roll call will be answered with current events relating to transportation. Mrs. M. M. Tucker will give a paper, and Mrs. Whit Athey will head a round table discussion. The hostess will direct a social program.

The Pike Road P. T. A. will meet on Monday night at the school auditorium. J. H. Alley president of the Montgomery Safety Council and A. B. Dillard of Mathews will be the speakers. Miss Josephine Gowan, a member of the Senior class will also be on the program. Miss Blanche Rollins will direct the singing.

The monthly social meeting of the Pinedale Civic Club is scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. E. Kendrick, with Mrs. Cecil Egerton as director. The theme of the program will be "American Education" and roll call will be responded to with "My First School."

The Stones Civic Club has postponed its monthly demonstration meeting until Nov. 1 because of the quilt show. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lightfoot on the old Selma Road. Response to roll call will be made by naming a favorite magazine.

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Catoma Junior High School held its monthly meeting Monday night at the school with Mrs. I. C. Whittle presiding. During the business session reports were heard from Mrs. C. H. Warner, secretary; Edward Young, treasurer and Mrs. Mark Revelle, magazine chairman. Miss Eunice Ward of the county health department urged the parents to cooperate with the health program. The business meeting was followed by a talk by Dr. W. R. Harrison, superintendent of schools, who had as his subject "The Purpose of Schools." After the meeting a reception was held the faculty members being the honor guests. Hostesses were Mrs. I. C. Whittle, Mrs. J. H. Hall, Mrs. C. H. Warner, Mrs. L. C. Felder and Mrs. Howard Young.

The Capitol Heights Fellowship Club will give a program at Pinedale Chapel Sunday night under the auspices of the Pinedale Fellowship Club.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. V. Neville. A program on "Youth Uplifting the Banner" was given with Mrs. Albert Jones as leader. Taking part on the program were Mrs. Mark Kennick, Mrs. M. J. Cowles and Mrs. G. L. Cherry. Miss Agatha Massey represented the girl of a century ago and Miss Frances Connaly represented the girl of today. Refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Neville and Mrs. G. C. McDowell.

The Ramer Parent Teacher Association and the Senior Class of the Montgomery County High School will sponsor a Halloween party at the school on the night of Oct. 30. The Senior Class will entertain with a floor show in the auditorium, music by the glee club, sideshow and games for the small children. Member of the P.T.A. will serve oyster and chicken suppers beginning at 6:30 p.m. Miss Mary Virginia Elgin will be charge of the entertainment. Miss Julia Carter will be menu chairman and Mrs. A. D. Cowles, Mrs. M. H. Kennick and Mrs. G. L. Cherry will have charge of the tables.

The LaPine Civic Club was reorganized Tuesday afternoon with officers as follows: Miss Annie Lou Spear, president; Mrs. Velma Grissett, first vice-president; Mrs. T. L. Dennis, second vice-president; Mrs. J. P. Ruff, secretary. Meetings will be held monthly on the third Tuesday afternoon.

A girls' point system club has been organized at Montgomery County High School with officers as follows: Ruth Amason, president; Elsie Jackson, vice-president; Myrtle Wingard, secretary; Elizabeth Carter, treasurer; Miss Bunah Mae Sellers, faculty adviser.

The Smilietown Community Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Ethel Milligan with Mrs. H. C. Gardner, Mrs. James Kirksey, and Mrs. J. M. Chandler as assistant hostesses. Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. W. W. Payne presented a clever dialogue illustrating how to choose one's wardrobe. Roll call was answered with current events.

The Pike Road Woman's Club met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. McClurkin, with Mrs. H. B. Fannin as joint hostesses. Mrs. Horace Sullivan, club director, presented the demonstration lesson.

The Ramer Civic Club will meet on Tuesday afternoon at the Teachers Home, with Mrs. W. D. Smith, Mrs. W. V. Neville and Mrs. G. H. Dyal at joint hostesses. The club directors will be in charge of the program. Response to roll call will be an idea gleaned from a previous demonstration less or a current event.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday, office; Tuesday, Ramer Civic Club; Wednesday, special work in preparation for quilt exhibit; Thursday and Friday, quilt exhibit; Saturday, office and curb market.

The Ramer Methodist Woman's Missionary Society held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Ada Gray. Preceding the mission program, a business session was held with Mrs. W. U. Turnipseed presiding. Reports were heard from officers and a special announcement was made by the publicity superintendent, Mrs. J. C. Sellers, of a week of prayer special for the next meeting with its four objectives. Mrs. W. D. Smith and Mrs. M. E. Hill were announced as the November hostesses, the meeting to be held at the Teachers' Home, with Mrs. C. E. Rushing as leader. Mrs. P. H. Harris will care for the church during the next month. Misses Frances Porter, and Mary Virginia Elgin were received as new members. Mrs. W. D. Smith directed the mission program. The devotional was led by Miss Porter and Miss Sara Pattillo and Miss Elgin talked on the missionary problems and work in Korea. During the social period, the hostess assisted by Miss Ruth Oray served a salad plate.

The Grady Parent Teacher Association will hold its monthly meeting Thursday night.

November 4, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

The Dublin Community Club held its monthly demonstration meeting Friday afternoon at the Dublin church with 25 members and visitors present. Preceding the business meeting, Miss Eunice Ward, county health nurse, gave a history of the State and County health departments and their present programs. Mrs. Rufus Fannin presided and appointed the following chairmen of objectives; Mrs. Bill Ray, Farm Bureau and cooperative marketing; Mrs. C. E. Rushing, scholarship; Mrs. J. H. Neugent, citizenship; Mrs. E. E. Huffman, membership; Miss Beatrice Hicks was appointed reporter. The roll was called by the secretary, Miss Mary Houlton, and response was made with current events. Mrs. Mamie Thorington, county home agent, gave a report on the recent quilt exhibit held by the county council. Following the business session, Mrs. H. C. Gardner, president of the Smilietown Club and Mrs. W. W. Payne gave a dialogue illustrating the lesson in "Choosing a Wardrobe." New members were enrolled as follows: Mrs. Edward Wilhoite, Mrs. A. L. Bigger, Jr., Mrs. W. M. Mills, Mrs. C. E. Mills, Mrs. Bill Ray, Mrs. Rob Newman. Mrs. Bigger was appointed hostess for the December meeting which will be held at the church.

The monthly leadership school for directors of county home demonstration clubs will be held Monday at 10 a.m. at the administration building of the Department of Education on South Lawrence Street. Miss Dorothy Dean of Auburn will teach a lesson on textiles.

The Junior Woman's Club of Hope Hull will meet Friday afternoon with Miss Sue Jones, adviser, in charge.

The Pine Level Methodist Woman's Missionary Society will meet Nov. 12 at the church for the monthly business and mission program.

Preaching services will be held at Pine Level Methodist Church Nov. 10.

The Mt. Zion B. Y. P. U. was entertained Thursday night by Miss Erlene Paulk at her home at Chesser. Games and contests furnished diversion. Iced coffee and cake were served.

The Round Table Club of Grady will meet Nov 20 the hostess to be announced. A Thanksgiving program will be arranged. Response to roll call will be a Thanksgiving verse from the Bible.

The Friendship Singers Club met Saturday night at the home of W. C. Jackson near Center Point.

Newly-elected officers of the Ramer Chapter Future Home Makers of America are: President, Sara Davis; vice president, Myrtle Nolan; secretary, Lula Frye; treasurer, Early Neal; reporter, Laura Hill Guy.

Montgomery County was represented at the district home demonstration meeting at Monroeville Tuesday by Mrs. J. W. Sellers, of Ramer, president of the county council; Mrs. C. L. Chenault, of Maxwell Field, chairman of the citizenship objective; Mrs. Rhodes Hughes, of Pinedale, substituting for Mrs. James McInnis, chairman of the scholarship objective; Mrs. Owen Green, of Snowdown, substituting for Mrs. r. B. Glass, chairman of the Farm Bureau and co-operative marketing objective, and Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home agent.

The Catoma Parent Teacher Association will meet Nov. 11. Hostesses will be Mrs. M. C. Gordon, Mrs. R. L. Long, Mrs. Z. P. Gordon, Mrs. C. B. Thames, Mrs. W. L. Lamar.

The Pinedale Civic Club will meet Nov. 12 with Mrs James McInnis as hostess. The club leaders will present the demonstration lesson. Current events will be the answer to roll call.

The Chesser Community Club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. R. Paulk, with Miss Erlene Paulk as hostess. A demonstration lesson on the quilt exhibit given recently by the county council was also a feature of the meeting.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday, leadership school; Tuesday, Pike Road senior and junior 4-H Clubs; Wednesday, Ramer Senior 4-H Club; Thursday, Catoma 4-H Club; Friday, Hope Hull Junior Woman's Club; Saturday, office and curb market.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Providence Presbyterian Church will meet on Nov. 14. This organization held a shower Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rawdon Barnes for the benefit of the Presbyterian Children's Home. Miss Martha Bruce and Mrs. Nickle, of Montgomery, visitors, conducted the devotional and spoke on the Presbyterian Home respectively.

The LeGrand Community Club will meet with Mrs. T. O. McDowell, Nov. 15.

Preaching services will be held at Providence Presbyterian Church Nov. 17 with the Rev. C. H. Rodgers of Marbury, pastor, in charge.

The Sellers Civic Club will meet Nov. 14 with Mrs. Desma Brady as hostess. A talk on the origin of Thanksgiving by Miss Evelyn Brady. The club leaders will give the demonstration lesson.

The Pine Level Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will meet Nov. 13 at the home of Mrs. Ray C. Guice, with Mrs. Guice also serving as program chairman.

The Pike Road junior and senior 4-H Clubs will meet Tuesday.

The Ramer senior 4-H Club will meet Wednesday.

The Catoma 4-H Club will meet Thursday morning.

The Catoma Community Club will meet Thursday afternoon. The leaders will give a demonstration lesson in textiles. Mrs. Rebecca L. Brock will be hostess.

The Ramer Civic Club will meet Nov. 26 with Mrs. W. U. Turnipseed, Mrs. M. C. Story and Mrs. F. H. Stephens as hostesses. The club leaders will give a demonstration lesson and Mrs. J. W. Sellers will make a report on the district meeting.

The Smilietown Community Club will meet Nov. 21 with Mrs. A. F. Jones, Mrs. W. B. Parker, Mrs. F. S. Benbow and Mrs. Edgar Wright as hostesses. Roll call response will be made with a Thanksgiving verse or sentiment. A special feature will be a talk on Thanksgiving Day by Mrs. Mamie Thorington. The club leaders will give the demonstration lesson.

The Chesser Community Club will hold its monthly meeting Nov. 27, with Mrs. Pinson as hostess.

The LaPine Civic Club will meet Nov. 19 for an extension lesson in textiles, to be given by the county agent. Miss Annie Lou Spear will preside.

The Stones Civic Club will meet Friday afternoon for a social program at the home of Mrs. B. C. Capell. Roll call will be answered with suggestions for recreation.

The Ramer Parent Teacher Association will meet Wednesday at the school. Members of the faculty will present a group of pupils in a program, following the business session. Mrs. H. V. Bell will preside.

The Snowdown Woman's Club will hold its demonstration meeting Nov. 13.

Newly-elected officers of the senior class of Pike Road High School are: President, John Hall; vice-president, Joe Stowers; secretary, Rochelle Willis; treasurer, Ed Davis; reporter, Ann Howard.

The Montgomery County High School football team will play at Wetumpka with the Secondary Agricultural School Friday afternoon.

The Grady Parent Teacher Association held its monthly meeting at the school with Mrs. Lucien Anderson presiding. During a business session, members voted to buy toothbrushes for the 75 pupils enrolled, to rebuild the playground equipment, and to buy a volley ball for the school. Dr. W. K. Naftel agreed to donate a two months' supply of toothpaste and the P. T. A. voted to purchase enough for the remainder of the year. Mrs. Elizabeth Naftel, principal, and chairman of the landscaping committee, reported the lawn was ready to sow Winter grass seed and Mrs. C. D. Keener reported plans for setting out trees this month under the supervision of G. H. Dyar, county vocational teacher. Mrs. M. M. Tucker reported 40 paid memberships, and Mrs. T. S. Skipper reported efforts to encourage attendance of all new members. Mrs. Moody Farior, finance chairman, gave plans for a benefit chicken supper. An address on communicable diseases by Dr. W. K. Naftel and a talk on "Training Americans for Citizenship," by Mrs. Sallie Athey were the principal features of the program. Durham Tucker gave a reading and the fifth and sixth grades gave a group of songs. Millicent Scrushy was in charge of the devotional.

November 11, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

The week of prayer observed by Methodist Churches the past week was the occasion for special programs by the LaPine Methodist Woman's Missionary Society. Among these was the opening program Monday afternoon, held at the home of Mrs. L. H. Hudson, when Miss Mary Vic Mauk, of State Teachers College in Troy, a former missionary to Korea for five years, made a talk on Korea. Miss McNeill, of Troy, was also a visitor.

The November meeting of the Pine Level Baptist Woman's Missionary Society was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ray C. Guice. A continued program with other parts emphasizing the Thanksgiving season was given. Miniature pumpkins, turkeys, and chrysanthemums were used in the decorations, symbolic of the season. The program opened with group singing followed by the Bible study, conducted by Mrs. J. M. Townsend who also presided. Mrs. Morris Wingard gave the continued lesson and Miss Guice Stevens gave a talk on "The Shuck Centennial." Miss Ruby Smilie, Mrs. John Albert Rhodes and Misses Mary Frances Guice and Alice Jewel Townsend had other numbers on the program. Miss Leila McGhee gave a reading, and members of the school faculty gave a vocal number, "Go and Tell." After the business meeting a salad plate was served by the hostess. The December meeting was announced for the usual date at the home of the president.

Members of the senior class of Pike Road High School have received their class rings.

The Catoma Community Club met in regular session Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rebecca L. Brock on the Selma Highway. Mrs. V. C. Elgin conducted the business session at which time reports of the secretary and treasurer were heard. Miss Eunice Ward of the health department gave a brief history of the department and told of the services it rendered. The lesson demonstration on "Buying Your Wardrobe" was given by Miss Sue Jones. Afternoon refreshments were served.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Nancy Rushton with Mrs. H. H. Bass as joint hostess. Mrs. W. H. Green will be leader of the royal service program.

Mrs. Pauline Curtis, Mrs. W. H. Green, Mrs. C. M. Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Cosby, of the Ramer Baptist Church attended the W. M. U. district meeting in Eufaula Tuesday.

New officers have been elected as follows by the Ramer Baptist Sunday School: W. D. Smith, superintendent; Mark H. Kennick, associate superintendent; Miss Mayme Carter, secretary; A. J. Rushton, treasurer. Teachers have been appointed as follows: Mrs. Albert Jones, beginner's class; primary class, Mrs. G. L. Cherry; junior class, Miss Mae Hall; intermediate class, Miss Helen Thompson; senior class, to be supplied; adult class, G. H. Dyar.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Providence Presbyterian Church will meet Thursday afternoon.

The LeGrand Community Club will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. T. O. McDowell.

The Round Table Club of Grady will meet Nov. 20. A special program on Thanksgiving will be given.

The Pinedale Civic Club will meet on Tuesday at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. James McInnis for a luncheon meeting to be followed by the monthly extension lesson. Roll call will be answered with current events.

The Pine Level Methodist Woman's Missionary Society will meet Tuesday afternoon at the church.

The Sellers Civic Club will meet on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Desma Brady as hostess. Miss Evelyn Brady will give a talk on the origin of Thanksgiving and the club leaders will give the extension lesson.

The Montgomery County High School football team will go to Opp Friday afternoon to meet Opp High School in a game.

The Snowdown Woman's Club will meet Wednesday afternoon for an extension lesson to be given by the club leaders. Mrs. J. P. Curry will be hostess.

The Pine Level Parent Teacher Association met Monday night at the school. J. M. Townsend presided and the Rev. W. O. Calhoun conducted the devotional. During a business session plans were discussed for a fair to be held on Nov. 19. Miss Margaret Huey presented an entertainment program in which a number of pupils participated.

The Ramer Methodist Woman's Missionary Society met in monthly session Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. D. Smith with Mrs. M. E. Hill as hostess with Mrs. S. U. Turnipseed, president in the chair reports were heard from the secretary and treasurer and birthday offerings and dues were received. Mrs. Turnipseed reported the work being done in the rural sectors and the drive for better motion pictures. Encouraging reports were heard from the children's division superintendent and the mission study superintendent. Plans for a mission class at an early date were made by Mrs. P. H. Harris. Plans for the unification of the three Methodist churches were told by Mrs. J. C. Sellers, who also made a request for a Christian stand on the Ethiopian question. Mrs. J. D. Turnipseed and Mrs. Will Wingard volunteered to care for the church during the present month. A nominating committee consisting of Mrs. J. D. Turnipseed and Mrs. J. E. Felton was appointed to report at the next meeting. Mrs. Harris was reappointed yearbook chairman. Mrs. J. E. Felton and Mrs. A. C. Felton were announced as hostesses for December, and Mrs. D. E. Collier as leader. The club agreed to cooperate with the Civic Club in a community Christmas tree. Mrs. C. E. Rushing directed the mission program on which Mrs. P. H. Harris, Mrs. J. C. Sellers, Mrs. G. H. Dyar and Mrs. Mrs. N. J. Cowles took part, telling of the objectives of the week of prayer. Sandwiches, cake and chocolate were served.

The Junior Hope Hull Woman's Club met Friday afternoon in the church annex. Miss Johnnylyn Campbell presided. Mrs. Mary Ward was elected songleader. Mrs. Mamie Thorington, assisted by Miss Sue Jones, gave a lesson in color and its relation to dress, as given at the extension lesson by Miss Dorothy Dean. During a social hour, a salad plate in season motif was served.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday, office; Tuesday, Pinedale Civic Club; Wednesday, Snowdown Woman's Club; Thursday, Sellers Civic Club; Friday, LeGrand Community Club; Saturday, office and curb market.

The Smilietown Community Club will meet Nov. 2a for an extension lesson in the study of textiles. Mrs. A. F. Jones, Mrs. W. B. Parker, Mrs. F. S. Benbow and Mrs. Edgar Wright will be hostesses. Mrs. Mamie Thorington will make a talk on "Thanksgiving Day." Response to roll call will be a Thanksgiving verse or sentiment.

The Catoma Parent Teacher Association will meet Monday night at the school with Mrs. Irby Whittle presiding. The hostesses will be Mrs. M. C. Gordon, Mrs. R. L. Long, Mrs. Z. P. Gordon, Mrs. C. B. Thames and Mrs. W. L. Lamar.

The Ramer Civic Club will meet Nov. 26. Mrs. W. U. Turnipseed, president, assisted by Mrs. M. C. Story and Mrs. Frank Stephens, will be hostess. Roll call will be answered as directed by the citizenship chairman. The club leaders will give the extension lesson in textile.

The Chesser Community Club will meet Nov. 27 with Mrs. Edward Pinson as hostess. Thanksgiving verses will be used for response to roll call.

The Ramer Senior Glee Club recently organized has officers and members as follows: Dan Murrell, president; Kathleen McCullough, secretary-treasurer; Pauline Hall, reporter; Marjorie Cherry, pianist;

Lillian Alford, Mozelle Allen, Margaret Barnett, Mary Alice Black, Billy Chancey, Lula Frye, Mary Frances Guice, Evelyn Moore, Ray Powell, Voncile Reeves, Verla Ruth Talley, Alice Jewel Townsend and Ben Wilson. Mrs. Parnell director.

The Ramer Junior Glee Club recently organized under the directorship of Mrs. Parnell, has officers and members as follows: president, Eleanor Gardner; secretary-treasurer, Hilda Wilson; reporter, Eleanor Carter; Fayte Bell Perdue, Sara Redmond, Mary Huffman, Dorothy Newman, Virginia Dorman, Margie Russell, Elizabeth Farmer, Virginia Abernathy, Theldra Bass, Hilda Mae Tillery, Hortense Tucker, June Farmer, Louise Thompson, Edna Ruth McDowell, Mary Frances Amason, Mary Annie Collier, Carolyn Hancock, Louise Norman, Grace Connally, Alberta Martz, Robbie Williams, Louise Lewis, Jewel Parker, Frances Duke, Arvie Ruth McDowell, Alice Hood, and Marjorie Cherry, pianist.

Schools of the county will observe holiday Monday because of Armistice Day.

November 18, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

The Pine Level Parent Teacher Association will sponsor a benefit fair at the school auditorium Tuesday night.

The Young Woman's Auxiliary of the Ramer Baptist Church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Martha Helen Brooks. The following newly-elected officers assumed their duties: Frances Connally, president; Martha Helen Brooks, vice-president; Marjorie Cherry, secretary-treasurer. Miss Mayme Carter is director.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will hold a mission study class Tuesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. C. M. Brooks. Tests will be given at a later date by Mrs. N. J. Cowles. The annual week of prayer for foreign missions will be observed De. 2-6.

A box supper for the benefit of the Frances E. Willard fund for education against alcohol and for the Montgomery Tuberculosis Sanatorium was held Saturday night at the Snowdown clubhouse under the auspices of the local chapter of Woman's Christian tTemperance Union.

Mrs. Seals Menefee (Loris McLeod), of Grady, was honoree at a miscellaneous shower Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. F. Wingard. Hostesses were Miss Maxine Wingard, Mrs. H. J. Wright and Miss Mae McLeod.

The Grady Parent Teacher Association will meet Thursday night at the school with Mrs. L. Anderson presiding. A Thanksgiving program will be given under the direction of Miss Georgia Collier, primary teacher. Elder, J. W. McLeod will make a Thanksgiving address and the pupils of the first and second grades will give the devotional by singing Thanksgiving songs and a prayer.

The Grady Round Table Club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the school auditorium. All members of the club will serve as hostesses. The principal feature of the program will be a Thanksgiving talk by the Rev. W. H. Cook, of Fort Deposit, Miss Eunice Ward, county health nurse, will also make a talk.

Rufus Fannin, of Dublin, Coleman Wingard and W. C. Jackson, of Center Point; Russell Hassey, of Grady and Bill Milligan, of Ramer, were among the county farmers who attended the recreational school for rural leaders given at Huntingdon College last week.

The LeGrand Civic Club met Friday at the home of Mrs. Jesse H. Reynolds. A lesson in textiles and testing materials was given by the county agent, Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington assisted by club members.

John Ivey, of Auburn, poultry specialist of the Alabama Extension Service will conduct a lesson in poultry Monday at 10 a.m. at the Administration Building of the County Department of Education for the poultry leaders of home demonstration clubs of the county. Mr. Ivey will give directions of special interest to growers of backyard flocks. The lesson was arranged by the county home agent, Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington.

The Pike Road Parent Teacher Association will meet at the school Monday at 7:30 p.m. Miss Margaret Waugh will conduct the devotional and prayer. Dr. M. L. Rutland, of Montgomery, will make a talk on "Oral Hygiene and Its Relation to Health." Miss Annie Byrd Jones will give a reading. A play, "The Cotton Tails and Mother Goose in Healthland," will be given with the following children from the first and second grades in the cast: Sam Jordan, Gene Handy, Margaret Louise Sullivan, Jane Harwell, Mary Ann Dees, David Polk, John Hartley, Mildred Abercrombie, Willie Sue Canty, Vera Mae Barnes, Neva Brown and Charels Joiner.

The Snowdown Woman's Club held its monthly extension lesson Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Cutts on the Norman Bridge Road. Following roll call and a business session presided over by Mrs. M. G. Mashburn, the club leaders gave a demonstration in textiles and testing materials.

Mrs. James McInnis was hostess to the Pinedale Civic Club members at a luncheon, meeting Tuesday, after which the regular monthly extension lesson was held, with the club directors in charge.

Mrs. Nancy Rushton and Mrs. H. H. Bass were hostesses to the Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society Tuesday afternoon at the home of the former. The Royal Service program, continuing the study of the Christian conquest in China, was given with Mrs. C. M. Brooks presiding. A special feature was a dialogue by Mrs. Albert Jones, representing Henrietta Shuck, the South's first Baptist missionary heroine, and Miss Edna Connally, representing Mrs. Dodd, who visited China last year. Others taking part on the program were Mrs. M. B. Rushton, Mrs. J. H. Connally and Mrs. G. C. McDowell. Mrs. Green was leader. Mrs. Waller, of Loachapoka and Mrs. W. A. Webster, of Hope Hull, were out-of-town guests. During the social period, refreshments were served.

The Ramer Junior 4-H Club will meet Tuesday morning at Montgomery County High School.

The Pine Level Junior 4-H Club will meet Thursday morning. Mavis Hooks will preside.

The Smilietown Community Club will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sanderson Benbow. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. A. F. Jones, Mrs. Edgar Wright, and Mrs. W. B. Parker.

The LaPine Civic Club will meet Tuesday afternoon. An extension lesson in textiles will be given by the county home agent.

The Pike Road Woman's Club will hold its monthly demonstration meeting Wednesday afternoon. The club directors will be in charge of the program.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday, poultry leadership school, Department of Education; Tuesday, forenoon, Ramer Junior 4-

H Club; afternoon, LaPine Civic Club; Wednesday, Pike Road Woman's Club; Thursday, forenoon, Pine Level 4-H Club; afternoon, Smilietown Community Club; Friday, Stones Woman's Club.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Hope Hull Methodist Church will sponsor a bazaar at the church Wednesday afternoon. Proceeds will be used toward paying for the recent annex built to the church.

The Ramer Civic Club is making plans for a bazaar to be held in December for the benefit of the scholarship fund sponsored by the Montgomery County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs.

The Montgomery County High School football team will play Pineapple High School Friday afternoon at Collier Bowl at Ramer.

The Ramer Chapter Future Farmers of America will initiate the following candidates into the "greenhand" degree Tuesday. Malcolm Sellers, Will Haden Norman, Thomas Newman, James Guy Scaife, Herbert Hassey, Klem Paulk, Mack Grant, Tharon Broadway, Roland Anderson, and Underwood Sneed. The following committees have been appointed by Windom Parker, president: Initiation, Otto Duncan, Robert Payne, Derrell Carter; preparations for district meeting, Roland Anderson, Alex Chesnutt, T. L. Dennis; dues, Ronald Sellers, William Paulk, Shackelford Scaife; to plan program for joint meeting with F. H. A., Underwood Sneed, Willis Taylor, Wilfred Cauthen. The chapter sponsored a successful drive for funds for the crippled children's convalescent homes of Alabama the past week.

The Montgomery District Association of Future Farmers of America will be entertained by the Ramer Chapter, F. F. A. at Montgomery County High School on the night of Dec. 2. Representatives will attend from Wetumpka, Holtville, Eclectic, and Marbury.

The Stones Civic Club will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. T. J. Machen as hostess. Roll call will be answered with Pilgrim customs. The club directors will give the monthly extension lesson.

The Ramer Baptist W. M. S. will have its monthly business session at the church Nov. 25.

The Ramer Civic Club will hold its monthly meeting Nov. 26 with Mrs. S. U. Turnipseed, Mrs. M. C. Story, and Mrs. F. H. Stephens as hostesses. The citizenship chairman will be in charge of roll call.

The Chesser Community Club will meet Nov. 27 with Mrs. Edward Pinson as hostess. Roll call will be answered with Thanksgiving verses.

The Montgomery County School Principals' Club will meet Saturday night at Lanier High School. Members of the Board of Education will be guests. The club and visitors will be entertained at supper in the Lanier Cafeteria.

November 25, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

A benefit play "Welcome Home, Jimmie," will be given at Montgomery County high School Tuesday night under the auspices of the Ramer Athletic Association. Admission to be 15 and 25 cents. In the cast will be Myrtle House, Ben Wilson, Jimmie Houlton, Estelle Stephens, Lamar Smilie, Roland Anderson, Dewitt Keener, Bannie Dillard and Mary Frances Guice. Mrs. Mildred Green Neville is the director.

The Pinedale Civic Club will meet Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. Hickman as hostess. Preceding the program, which will be given under the direction of Miss Edna Sullivan, plans will be made for a Christmas program and for making a club quilt which will be sold for the benefit of the club treasury. During the social period, a gift shower will be held for Miss Edna Sullivan, bride-elect, and Mrs. Perdue (Gladys Maddox) a recent bride.

Plans are being made by the Ramer Civic Club for a community Christmas tree to be held on a vacant lot in the business section. Other local organizations will cooperate in arranging a program.

Schools of the county will be closed Thursday and Friday in observance of the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. J. F. Duggar was hostess to the Hope Hull Woman's Club Thursday afternoon at the clubhouse. Grover C. Hall, editor of The Montgomery Advertiser, was guest speaker, addressing the members on "The Business of Editing a Newspaper." A number of visitors was present.

The clubhouse at Hope Hull and the new annex to the Hope Hull Methodist Church are being painted. A bazaar was held by the Ladies Auxiliary Wednesday to raise funds for the church annex painting. The Woman's Club is sponsoring the painting of the clubhouse.

The Friendship singing club met Saturday night at the home of Coleman Wingard in Center Points.

The Pleasant Ridge Civic Club will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Gregory. Mrs. Peter Pouncey and Miss Mather Tucker will be in charge of a Thanksgiving program.

Mrs. Marshall Chandler of Pike Road and Mrs. W. J. Dendy of Grady entertained Saturday afternoon at the home of the latter in honor of Miss Louise Wright, who will be married Thanksgiving Day to Felix Russell.

Etta B. Smith Chapter No. 290 Or – of Easter Star, will meet at Ramer Masonic Hall Wednesday at 7 p.m. After the business session, member and their guests will be served a turkey supper.

The Round Table Club of Grady met Wednesday afternoon at the school auditorium. During a business session over which Mrs. W. M. Mills presided, the following officers were announced for next year: Mrs. E. F. Wingard, president; Mrs. M. M. Tucker, vice-president; Mrs. C. E. Mills, secretary; Mrs. T. S. Skipper, treasurer. A meeting of the officers was called for Thursday afternoon to make plans for next year's study, which will be based on a course in home improvement. Mrs. Lucien Anderson, Mrs. W. V. Bell and Mrs. C. D. Keener were appointed to make plans for adding books to the club library. Mrs. Anderson reported plans for setting out shrubbery in the club park. During the social period, Billie Hugh Farrior gave several vocal selections. Coffee, sandwiches and cake were served.

The Senior three child development class in the vocational division of Montgomery County High School entertained a group of children Friday afternoon in the home economics building under the supervision of Miss Mae Hall, vocational home economics teacher. Children's games were diversion. Refreshments were served. Guests were : Betsy Smith, Mary Emma Sellers, Sarah Mitchell, Billy Neville, Gilbert Sellers, L. C. Griffith, Jr., Frank Wingard and Ronald Wingard.

A Thanksgiving program will be sponsored at Pinedale Chapel Thursday by the Civic Club and the Sunday School. Dr. Yarbrough of Montgomery will be the guest speaker. Mrs. James Stoner will tell a Thanksgiving story. Special music will be arranged.

The Pinedale Fellowship Club held a program and social meeting Friday night at the home of Miss Elizabeth Jones. The meeting this week will be at the home of Mrs. I. E. Kendrick.

The Grady Farm Bureau met at the school Tuesday night with C. E. Mills presiding. Lem A. Edmonson, county agent, spoke to the members, encouraging them to send a representative to the National Farm Bureau meeting in Chicago Dec. 9-11. L. Anderson, local poultryman, made a talk on poultry. Richard Wible, assistant farm agent, led the singing. Refreshments were served during a social meeting.

Holiday visitors in the Pinedale community include Dr. Warren Sorrell, of Lexington, Ky., guest of his brother, Dr. Walter Sorrell; Charles S. Jones, of St. Louis, and Roy E. Jones and son, Roy, Jr., of Birmingham, guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. James Stoner.

A harmonica band has been organized at Montgomery County High School with officers and members as follows: Grace Connally, president; Richard Payne, secretary-treasurer; Richard Amason, reporter; Mary Annie Collier, Mary Frances Amason, Dorothy Newman, June Farmer, Gladys Tillery, Carolyn Hancock, Dimples Harrod, Margie Russell, Virginia Abernathy, John Price, Thomas Price, Josh Paulk and Thelda Bass. Mrs. C. F. Farnell is director. The club meets on Mondays and Wednesdays.

A family gathering at the home of Mrs. Lily Brooks in Ramer last weekend included the following: Mrs. William Brooks and children, Mrs. Lucile Dykes and children, Mrs. Frank Smith and son, Charles, and Mrs. Lela Boyd and daughter, Dorothy, of Birmingham, Brooks Boyd and Mrs. Mary Sealy, of Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Collier and children, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Collier, Mrs. and Mrs. C. M. Brooks and Miss Martha Helen Brooks, of Ramer.

The Grady Parent Teacher Association met Thursday night. Mrs. L. Anderson presided and Miss Georgia Collier directed a Thanksgiving program which included a talk by the Rev. J. W. McLeod and songs by the primary grades. Plans were made for a Christmas tree for the school on Dec. 19 to be sponsored by the P.T. A. Mrs. W. V. Bell will be in charge of the carols.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday, office; Tuesday, Ramer Civic Club; Wednesday, Chesser Community Club; Thursday, holiday; Friday, special work; Saturday, office and curb market.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will meet Monday afternoon at the church for the monthly business meeting. Mrs. F. H. Stephens will be leader.

Mrs. Sanderson Benbow was hostess to the Smilietown Community Club at her home in Pine Level Thursday afternoon. Joint hostesses were: Mrs. Arthur Jones, Mrs. Edgar Wright and Mrs. W. B. Parker. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Carl Gardner, the meeting was presided over by Mrs. F. P. Hicks, vice-president. Plans were discuss for making money for the scholarship fund and also for the annual Christmas tree, which will be held at the December meeting. A talk on the origin of Thanksgiving was made by the county agent, Mrs. Mamie Thorington. A demonstration lesson in testing materials was given by Miss Ethel Milligan, and Mrs. W. W. Payne, the club directors. Refreshments were served.

The week opening Dec. 2 will be observed by the Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society as annual week of prayer for foreign missions.

The Chesser Community Club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward Pinson. Roll call will be answered with Thanksgiving verses.

The Ramer Civic Club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. S. U. Turnipseed, Mrs. M. C. Story and Mrs. F. H. Stephens as hostesses. The extension lesson will be given by the club leaders. The citizenship chairman, Mrs. W. D. Smith, will be in charge of roll call.

The Montgomery District F. F. A. Association will meet at Ramer on the night of Dec. 2.

The Pine Level Methodist W. M. S. will meet Dec. 10, at the church.

December 1, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

The monthly leadership school for home demonstration club leaders of the county will be held Monday at 10 a.m. at the Administration Building of the Department of Education on South Lawrence Street. Miss Dorothy Dean of the Alabama Extension Service and Miss Dana Gatchel of the faculty of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, will give a lesson in making Christmas gifts at home.

The LaPine Civic Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Esther Webster. Roll call was answered with quotations from the Bible. During a business session, presided over by Miss Annie Lou Spear, president, plans were discussed for improving the church grounds and other civic improvements. It was further decided to meet on a definite date and with the assistance of the young people of the Sunday School, do special work on the church grounds. Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home agent, gave a report of the poultry leadership school and gave a demonstration in testing textiles. Miss Eunice Ward, county health nurse, gave a talk on the present health program of the county. Several new members were enrolled. The club was invited to a spend-the-day party with Mrs. W. C. Naftel, of Naftel, for the December meeting. A salad plate with coffee was served.

A nice fund for the Improvement of the Methodist parsonage in LaPine was raised at an oyster supper sponsored recently by the Woman's Missionary Society. Plans are now being made for raising more funds.

The monthly Royal Service and business meetings of the Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will be held jointly in December, the meeting to be on Dec. 10, with Mrs. C. P. Cosby and Mrs. J. H. Connally as hostesses. A nominating committee, appointed by Mrs. C. M. Brooks, president, and composed of Mrs. G. C. McDowell, Mrs. T. W. Collier, Mrs. M. B. Rushton and Mrs. A. L. Carter, will report at this meeting.

This week will be observed by the Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society as annual week of prayer for foreign missions, with special offerings for the Lottie Moon fund. Meetings will be held each afternoon at the church from Monday through Friday.

The Ramer Parent Teacher Association will meet Wednesday afternoon at the school auditorium. Mrs. H. V. Bell will preside.

Among the family groups assembled for the Thanksgiving holidays was that of the Rushing family, which met at the home of Mrs. W. W. Payne in Dublin. Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. W. T. M. Rushing, of Selma; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. (Regina Rushing) and children, Robert and Richard, of Dublin; Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Rushing and Mr. and Mrs. John Williams (Carrie Rushing) of Montgomery; Kenneth Rushing, of Charlotte, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Otis Springer (Flora Rushing) and children, of Union Springs.

A family group gathered at Pintlala on Thanksgiving Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reddoch. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. John A. Reddoch and son, John A., Jr., of Pintlala; Miss Emelyn Reddoch, of Deatsville; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Harlin (Martha Reddoch) and children, Edgar, Jr., and Valeta Ann, of Pike Road.

The Rev. W. O. Calhoun, pastor of the Ramer Methodist Circuit, has been reassigned to this circuit for another year. The Rev. T. G. Jones has also been reassigned to the LaPine circuit.

The Pinedale Fellowship Club held its weekly program and social meeting Friday night at the home of Mrs. I. E. Kendrick.

Misses Lillie McInnis, Eunice McInnis, Valeria McInnis and Lottie McInnis, all of whom teach in Birmingham, were at their home in Pinedale for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Bell entertained a family group at dinner at their home at Ada on Thanksgiving Day.

The December schedule for 4-H Club meetings will be as follows: Pike Road, junior and senior clubs, Dec. 3; Ramer senior club, Dec. 4; Catoma junior club, Dec. 5; Pintlala junior club, Dec. 6; Ramer, junior and elementary clubs, Dec. 17; Pine Level junior club, Dec. 19.

Family groups which gathered at Ramer Thanksgiving Day included Mrs. Mary Bell, Ann Bell, and Mr. and Mrs. Reese Harvey, of Montgomery, and Robert Bell, of Grady, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Cowles (Mary Bell); and Dr. and Mrs. James Milligan, of Montgomery; Mr. and Mrs. Julian Belser, of Mt. Meigs; Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Fannin and son, Billy, of Dublin; Mr. and Mrs. Will Hicks and Mrs. Rainey Hicks, of midland City; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Black, Miss Irene Milligan, W. R. Milligan and Forest Milligan, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Milligan.

Mrs. Hickman entertained members of the Pinedale Civic Club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Following roll call, plans were discussed for the annual community Christmas party which will be sponsored by the club at Pinedale Chapel on the night of Dec. 27, and the following committee was named to make arrangements: Miss Mary Alice Boland, chairman, Mrs. James Stoner and Miss Lillie McInnis. A special feature of roll call was short sketches of books recently read by each member. Member also answered roll call with a quilt square which will be made into a club quilt and sold on the night of the Christmas party. A brief demonstration lesson in textiles was given by the club leaders. During the social period, a gift shower was held with Miss Edna Sullivan, bride-elect, and Mrs. Gladys Maddox Perdue, a recent bride, as honorees. Refreshments in the Thanksgiving motif were served.

A reunion of the Wright family was held Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smilie in Smilietown, assembling Mr. and Mrs. John Wright and children, Lewis and Bell, of Atmore; Mr. and Mrs. O. C. McNeill (Mamie Wright) and family of Macedonia; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smilie (Daisy Wright), and family. Mr. and Mrs. Gillis Smilie and family, of Smilietown.

Miss Clodine Nuegent, who teaches in Dozier; Miss Madell Milligan, who teaches in Brundidge, and Miss Minnie Sellers, who teaches in State Teachers College in Jacksonville, were among the teachers who returned to their respective homes near Ramer for the Thanksgiving holidays.

The Montgomery District F. F. A. Association will meet at Ramer Monday night with Ramer Chapter, Future Farmers of America, as hosts.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday, leadership school; Tuesday, Pike Road junior and senior 4-H clubs; Wednesday, Ramer senior 4-H club; Thursday, forenoon, Catoma 4-h Club; afternoon, Catoma Community Club; Friday, forenoon, Pintlala junior 4-H club; afternoon, Dublin Community Club; Saturday, office and curb market.

The Junior Woman's Club of Hope Hull entertained at a dance at the clubhouse Saturday night.

Among the college students who spent the Thanksgiving holidays at home were Miss Minoise Thompson, of Smilietown, who attends Birmingham-Southern, and Miss Nannie Gay Pettus of Hope Hull, who attends Judson.

A group of 25 rural leaders from the various precincts of the county attended a special farm meeting at Auburn Tuesday under the direction of R. G. Arnold, district farm agent. The group was accompanied by Lem A. Edmonson, county farm agent.

The schedule for issuing cotton subsidy checks this week is given as follows by the county agent: Monday, 10 a.m., Carnegie Chapel, Beat 20; 2:30 p.m., Mitylene; Tuesday, 9 a.m., Cherry Hill School; 11 a.m., J. A. Stowers store at Mamie; 1 p.m., Elizabeth Church; 3:30 p.m., Teasley's Mill; Wednesday, 9 a.m., White Cloud Church; 1 p.m., Paulk's Store at Chesser.

The Dublin Community Club will meet Friday afternoon at the church with Mrs. A. L. Bigger as hostess.

The Catoma Community Club will meet Thursday afternoon. Mrs. V. C. Elgin, president, will be in the chair.

The Grady Parent Teacher Association will sponsor a Christmas party for the school on the night of Dec. 19. G. L. Harris will make a talk on "Why We Celebrate Christmas" and a group of school children will be presented in a pageant. Mrs. W. V. Bell will direct the singing of carols.

The Catoma Parent Teacher Association will meet Dec. 9. Play night will be observed with Mrs. M. B. Sykes, Mrs. M. C. Gordon and Mrs. Edward Young as the committee in charge. Christmas carols will be sung by J. H. Hall, Mrs. Ed Hall, T. C. Carlton and Mrs. J. Johnson. Hostesses will be Mrs. A. P. Gordon, Mrs. J. S. Collins, Miss Fanny Powell and Mrs. A. E. Hudgens.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Providence Presbyterian Church at LeGrand will meet Dec. 12.

The Pine Level Methodist Woman's Missionary Society will meet Dec. 10 at the church. The Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will meet Dec. 11 at the home of Mrs. J. Murray Townsend.

The schedule of home demonstration club meetings for December is as follows: Dec. 5, Catoma Community Club; Dec. 6, Dublin Community Club; Dec. 10, Pinedale Civic Club; Dec. 11, Snowdown Women's Club; Dec. 12, Sellers Civic Club; Dec. 13, Hope hull Junior Woman's Club; Dec. 16, Ramer Civic Club; Dec. 17, LaPine Civic Club; Dec. 18, Pike Road Woman's Club; Dec. 19, Smilietown Community Club; Dec. 20, LeGrand Community Club; Dec. 27, Stones Civic Club. The meeting of the Chesser Community Club will be announced.

Mrs. Marvin Berry will be hostess to the Pinedale Civic Club on Dec. 10. Roll call will be made an observance of Alabama Day.

The Grady Parent Teacher Association has voted to buy a dozen rose plants for the school campus and locks for the auditorium doors.

December 13, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

The annual Christmas program and tree of the Ramer Civic Club will be held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. D. Cowles, immediately after a demonstration lesson by the club leaders. Mrs. J. H. Milligan will be assistant hostess.

The Pine Level Parent Teacher Association will give a Christmas program Monday night at the school. Mrs. Susie T. Wingard and Mrs. Jessie L. Money will be in charge of the program.

The Pike Road Parent Teacher Association will have a Christmas program and business meeting Monday night at the school.

The Christmas meeting of the LaPine Civic Club will be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. W. C. Naftel, who will entertain the members at a spend-the-day party. A demonstration lesson will be given in the afternoon by Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home agent. Miss Annie Lou Spear will preside.

The Ramer junior and elementary 4-H Clubs will hold their monthly meetings Tuesday morning at Montgomery County High School.

The Christmas meeting of the Pike Road Civic Club will be held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Vaney Gerald. A business session and demonstration lesson by the club directors will precede the Christmas program and tree.

The Grady Round Table Club will hold its annual Christmas party Wednesday afternoon at the home of the president Mrs. W. M. Mills. A tree with gifts for the members will be a feature of the entertainment.

The Ramer Chapter, Future Farmers of Alabama, will give a program before the members of the Montgomery Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon Wednesday at the Gary-Teague Hotel in Montgomery. Windom Parker, of Pine Level is the F. F. A. president.

The Literary Guild of Pine Level will hold a Christmas party Thursday night at the home of Mrs. C. W. Adams. Mrs. Jessie Lee Money of the high school faculty, assisted by other members of the faculty, will be in charge of the program. A Christmas tree with gifts for the members will be a part of the entertainment.

The Grady Parent Teacher Association will entertain at a Christmas program and tree at the school Thursday night for the school children. G. L. Harris will make a talk and Mrs. W. V. Bell will direct the singing of carols. Mrs. L. Anderson will preside.

The Pine Level Junior 4-H Club will hold its monthly meeting on Thursday morning at the school.

The Smilietown Community Club will have its annual Christmas tree Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. C. McNeill, immediately after the monthly demonstration lesson which will be given by the club directors. Mrs. C. O. Rawls will be assistant hostess.

The LeGrand Community Club will hold its Christmas meeting Friday afternoon. A demonstration lesson in making Christmas gifts at home will be given.

The Pleasant Ridge Civic Club will entertain at a Christmas party Saturday night at the home of the president.

The Pinedale Fellowship Club will hold a Christmas party and tree Friday night at the home of Mrs. Hugh Crawford.

The members of the Priscilla Club of Pike Road were entertained at an oyster supper Friday night at the home of their president, Mrs. Harry Brown. Their husbands were the hosts.

Emergency adult schools opened in the county Tuesday as follows: Pine Level, Mrs. Solomon Johnson, teacher; Grady, Mrs. Ethel Bell, teacher; Dublin and Friendship, Mrs. A. L. Bigger, teacher; LaPine, Mrs. King Naftel, teacher.

Schools of the county will suspend classroom work on Dec. 20 for the annual Christmas holidays. Work will be resumed Jan. 2.

The Mt. Zion B. Y. P. U. will sponsor a Christmas party at the church on Christmas Eve night.

The Pine Level Epworth League will sponsor a Christmas tree at the Methodist Church, the date to be announced.

The Pine Level Baptist Woman's Missionary Society held its annual Christmas meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Townsend. Yuletide decorations were used. The tea table was centered with a miniature Christmas tree and lighted with tapers. A mission program was given by Mrs. Ray C. Guice, Mrs. Eunice McGhee, and Mrs. John A. Rhodes. A special musical number was by Mrs. Morris Wingard, Miss Margaret Huey and Miss Ruby Smilie, accompanied by Mrs. Jessie Lee Money. Miss Ruby Smilie also gave a vocal solo and Misses Mary Frances Guice, Leila McGhee, and Alice Jewel Townsend presented a playlet. The closing prayer was by Prof. Walter T. McKee. After the program, annual election of officers was held, with results as follows: Mrs. J. M. Townsend, president (re-elected); Mrs. Morris Wingard, vice-president; Mrs. Roger Daniel, secretary; Mrs. Eunice McGhee, treasurer. Salad plates and hot chocolate were served.

Newly-elected officers of the Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society are: Mrs. G. L. Cherry, president; Mrs. W. V. Neville, first vice-president; Miss Mayme Carter, second vice-president; Mrs. C. M. Brooks, third vice-president; Mrs. G. C. McDowel, secretary; Mrs. M. B. Rushton, treasurer.

The Pinedale Civic Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Marvin Berry. During the business session, Mrs. Walter Sorrell and Miss Lottie McInnis were appointed to investigate needy cases in the community for Christmas baskets. A demonstration lesson in making Christmas gifts at home was given by Mrs. James McInnis, assisted by other directors of the club. The Christmas party was announced for Dec. 27 with Miss Mary Alice Boland, Mrs. James Stoner and Miss Lillie McInnis as the committee in charge.

A quilting party will be held by the Pinedale Civic Club this week to complete a quilt which will be sold for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

The Dublin Community Club will entertain at a "kid party" at the home of Mrs. F. P. Hicks during the Christmas season for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

The Stones Civic Club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cecil Dowdell. Mrs. C. L. Chenault presided. Roll call was by the secretary, the members answering with incidents in Alabama history. Miss Eunice Ward, county health nurse, gave a paper on communicable diseases. Plans were made for a Christmas tree on Dec. 27. Thirteen members were present.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday, Ramer Civic Club; Tuesday, forenoon, Ramer junior and elementary 4-H Clubs; afternoon, LaPine Civic Club; Wednesday, Pike Road Woman's Club; Thursday, forenoon, Pine Level 4-H Club; afternoon, Smilietown Community Club; Friday, LeGrand Community Club; Saturday, office and curb market.

The Pine Level Baptist W. M. S. meetings have been changed to Wednesday after the first Sunday in each month.

The Chesser Community Club will hold its annual Christmas tree on the afternoon of Dec. 23, immediately after the monthly extension program.

The next meeting of the Ramer Parent Teacher Association will be postponed until the second Wednesday in January since the regular meetings date falls on New Year's Day.

Decembe 29, 1935

MONTGOMERY COUNTY NEWS

By Mildred S. Smith

The schedule of meetings for home demonstration clubs of the county in January will be: Pinedale Civic Club, Jan. 1; Catoma Community Club, Jan. 2.; Dublin Community Club, Jan. 3; Snowdoun Woman's Club, Jan. 8; Sellers Civic Club, Jan. 9; Stones Civic Club and Hope Hull Junior Woman's Club, Jan. 10; Pinedale Civic Club, Jan. 14; Pike Road Civic Club, Jan. 15; Smilietown Community Club, Jan. 16; LeGrand Community Club, Jan. 17; LaPine Civic Club, Jan. 21; Chesser Community Club and Snowdoun Woman's Club, Jan. 22; Stones Civic Club, Jan. 24; Ramer Civic Club and Pinedale Civic Club, Jan. 28.

Girls 4-H Clubs of the county will have the following schedule of meetings in January; Catoma junior club, Jan. 2; Pintlala junior club, Jan. 3; Pike Road junior and senior clubs, Jan. 7; Ramer senior club, to be announced; Ramer junior and elementary clubs, Jan. 21; Pine Level junior club, Jan. 16.

The Ramer Parent Teacher Association meeting will be held on Jan. 8 at the school. Mrs. H. V. Bell will preside.

The Catoma Parent Teacher Association meeting will be held Jan. 13 at the school. "The Progressive Home" will be the theme of the program. Mrs. Ed Hall will give a paper on "Founding a Family" and Mrs. R. L. Long will talk on "The Well Managed Home." "Management of Children in the Home" will be the subject of a talk by Mrs. I. C. Whittle. Hostesses will be Mrs. Mark Revelle, Mrs. a. A. Riley and Mrs. J. W. Hubert.

The Grady Parent Teacher Association will meet at the school on the night of Jan. 23. Mrs. E. W. Collier will be in charge f the program.

Schools of the county will reopen Thursday for regular classroom work.

The Dublin Community Club will sponsor a "kid party" Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. F. P. Hicks in the interest of the scholarship fund. Miss Irma Rials will be chairman of arrangements.

The Grady Farm Bureau will have its regular meeting on the night of Jan. 21 at the school auditorium.

The Pine Level Farm Bureau will hold its monthly meeting on the night of Jan. 16 at the school auditorium.

Mrs. J. Harold Hall will be hostess to the Catoma Club at her home Thursday afternoon.

The Pinedale Civic Club will have a spend-the-day party Wednesday at the home of Mrs. T. F. Spivey.

The Pine Level Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will hold its regular meeting on Jan. 8. Mrs. J. M. Townsend will preside. Mrs. Roger Daniel will be hostess.

The Pine Level Methodist Woman's Missionary Society will hold its monthly meeting Jan. 14 at the church.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Providence Presbyterian Church at LeGrand will hold meetings on Jan. 9 and Jan. 23.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday and Tuesday, office; Wednesday, holiday; Thursday, forenoon, Catoma 4-H Club; afternoon, Catoma Community Club; Friday, forenoon, Pintlala 4-H Club, afternoon, Dublin Community Club; Saturday, office and curb market.

Officers who will serve the Methodist Woman's Missionary Society this year are: Mrs. S. U. Turnipseed, president; Mrs. J. E. Felton, vice president; Mrs. J. C. Sellers, recording secretary; Mrs. G. H. Dyar, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. E. Rushing, general treasurer; Mrs. W. D. Smith, local treasurer; Mrs. Lily Brooks, World Outlook agent; Mrs. W. G. Sellers, superintendent of children's work and of Christian social relations; Mrs. Will Wingard, superintendent of supplies; Mrs. J. C. Sellers, superintendent of publicity; Mrs. P. H. Harris, superintendent of Bible and mission study; Mrs. Byrtram Trotter, superintendent of hospitality.

A family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reddoch of Fleta on Christmas Day assembled the following: Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Harlin and children, Edgar and Valeta Ann of Pike Road; Miss Emelyn Reddoch of Deatsville; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Reddoch and son, John A., Jr., of Fleta.

Officers who will serve the Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society this year are: Mrs. G. L. Cherry, President; Mrs. W. V. Neville, first vice-president; Miss Mayme Carter, second vice-president; Mrs. C. M. Brooks, third vice-president; Mrs. G. C. McDowell, secretary; Mrs. M. B. Rushton, treasurer.

Officers who will serve the Pine Level Baptist Woman's Missionary Society this year are: Mrs. J. Murray Townsend, president; Mrs. Morris Wingard, vice-president; Mrs. Roger Daniel, secretary; Mrs. Eunice McGhee, treasurer.

The Ramer Methodist Woman's Missionary Society will hold its monthly meeting Jan. 7 with Mrs. N. J. Cowles as hostess, and Mrs. C. E. Rushing as assistant hostess.

The Ramer Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will hold its monthly Royal Service meeting Jan. 14, and its monthly business meeting Jan. 27.

A family gathering in Ramer on Christmas Day assembled the following at the home of Mrs. Geneva House: Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stone and son, Oliver, Jr.; Mrs. Oscar Johnson and William Oscar House, of Montgomery; J. T. House, Miss Myrtle House and Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Cowles, of Ramer.

Miss Lillie Mae Reynolds of Troy and Miss Olene Wright, of Montgomery, were holiday visitors to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Reynolds, of Macedonia

Among the holiday visitors in Ramer were: Edgar Neville, of Birmingham; Leon Hicks, of Montevallo; Mr. and Mrs. Rob McDonald and Miss Elizabeth McDonald, of North Miami Beach; J. D. Harris, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Carol Gardner, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Miss Minnie Sellers, of Jacksonville, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Knowles and children, of Montgomery, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jennings, of Maxwell Field; Mrs. White Smith and children, of Jackson; Miss LaMargaret Turnipseed, of Opelika; Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Miller and son, of Greenville, and the Rev. and Mrs. Andrew Turnipseed, of Geneva; Thomas Schmidt, of Washington, D. C.; Prof. and Mrs. P. W. Williams and family, of Clio; Miss Corina Cannon, of Talladega.

The members of Stones Civic Club were entertained at the home of Mrs. L. C. Felder Friday afternoon. Mrs. C. L. Chenault presided over a short business session, after which a Christmas party was held.

A music club organized recently at Friendship has the following officers and members: Ethel Ray, president; Lillian Lee, vice president; Elizabeth Carter, secretary; Cranford Hataway, reporter; Ruby Ray, chaplain; Erlene Ray, Evelyn Ray, Marie Ingram, and Shaver Wilhoite.

Holiday visitors in Dublin included: Miss Clodine Neugent, of Dozier; Lawrence Hicks, of Shady Grove; Mrs. Charles S. Carter, of Atlanta; Hugh Gibbons, of Montgomery; Misses Mary Evelyn and Ruth Strickland, of Andalusia; Mrs. Kirk Long and son, of Gordonville; Leon Hicks, of Montevallo.

The Ramer Epworth League and the B. Y. P. U. held a joint Christmas party Saturday night at the Methodist Church parlors.

Holiday visitors in Smilietown included: Dr. Sam Wingard, of Virginia; the Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Smilie and children, of Jay, Fla.; Miss Minouise Thompson, of Birmingham-Southern College; Miss Louise Smilie, of Butler, Miss.; Judson Webster and Miss Frances Sullivan of Huntingdon College; Miss Martha Mae Gardner, of Teachers College in Troy; Miss Madelle Milligan, of Brundidge.