

The program committee of the Sellers Civic Club has announced the following hostesses for the present club year: October, Mrs. D.S. Findley; November, Mrs. R. C. Rives; December, Mrs. Joe Scaife; January, Mrs. R.S. Hataway; February, Mrs. B.F. Anderson; March, Mrs. Ruth Mizelle; April, Mrs. S.J. Guy; May, Mrs. Charlie Maddox; June, Mrs. C.F. Noble; September, Mrs. J.C. Gross, Members will attend the annual county club rally in July and will have their annual picnic in August.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday, office; Tuesday, Pinedale Woman's Club; Wednesday, Snowdown Woman's Club; Thursday, Sellers Civic Club; Friday, special work, Saturday, office and curb market.

The Pinedale Civic Club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Will Sullivan as hostess. The extension lesson in "Furniture in the Home" will be presented by the club leaders.

A fiddles' contest will be held at Montgomery County High School Friday night under the auspices of the F.F.A. club to raise money to send a delegate to the National F.F.A. Congress. A popularity contest will also be held to elect "Miss Montgomery County High School," the winner to serve a sponsor at the Ramer- Wetumpka football game. The club member who sells the most tickets to the contest will be given a free trip to the National Convention.

October 22, 1934
By Mildred S. Smith

A 4-H Club was organized Tuesday at Ramer Junior High School with officers and members as follows: Eleanor Gardner, president; Ruth Amason, vice-president; Sara Margaret Hicks, secretary; Urlene Ray, song leader; Edith Martz reporter; Ruby Ray, Jessie Paulk, Muriel Sneed, Janet Bell, Mamie Ruth Lacey and Hortense Tucker. The club will make a study of clothing, holding meetings monthly on the third Tuesday under supervision of Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington.

The following pupils of Pike Road High School made the honor roll the first scholastic month: Senior Three Class, Carolyn Cantey, Mary Ella Kennington, Gladys Maddox; Senior Two Class, Louise Glost, John Hall, Ann Howard, Frances Meriwether, Margaret Sue Shellman, Ann Wright, Rochelle Willis; Senior One Class, Anne Jordan, John Dean Glider, Mary Lou Hughes; Junior Three Class, Nan Garnand, Eric Ellis, Martha Marler, Brownie Davis, Louise Reynolds; Junior Two Class, Fred Stowers, Mildred Brown Davis, Leon Reynolds; Junior One Class, Roberts Wright, Briggs Dillard, Jr.

The Ramer Methodist W.M.S. met Tuesday afternoon in the church parlor with Mrs. P.H. Harris and Mrs. W.P. Huey hostesses. Mrs. S.U. Turnipseed presided and opened the meeting with prayer. Roll was called by the secretary and the minutes read and approved, after which reports were heard by the treasures, Mrs. W.D. Smith and

Allen Thomas, Mrs. W. D. Smith and Mrs. Allen Thomas, Mrs. C.E. Rushing, chairman of the Christian Social Relations committee, reported that 29 jars of canned fruit and vegetables had been received for the orphanage. She also reported that the society would send representatives to the Old Ship Church in Montgomery, Oct. 26, for the purpose of assisting negro women in organizing missionary societies and clubs. It was further announced that the organization would cooperate with the Montgomery County Relief committee in looking after underprivileged children in the community. Mrs. P.H. Harris, chairman of mission study, reported that books would be donated by Mrs. W.M.S. organizations in Montgomery, and classes would be organized at an early date. The local committee, of which Mrs. W. G. Sellers is chairman, reported that the painting of the church floors would be the next project. Other church improvements already made were reported. Mrs. C.E. Rushing was announced leader of the November program and Mrs. W.D. Smith and Mrs. M.E. Hill the hostesses. Special music was by Miss Majorie Cherry, Miss Helen Thompson, and Mrs. W.V. Neville. Mrs. J.C. Sellers gave the mission study on the "Rural Negro Community."

The Epworth League of Mt. Meigs, held a social in the form of a tacky party Friday night. Entertainment was under the direction of Misses Edith and Angeline Jenkins. Refreshments were served by Mrs. G.C. Gilder, Miss Gertrude Ralfe and Miss Rochelle Willis. Prizes were won by Cadwell Gilder and Angeline Jenkins.

A 4-H Club recently organized at Ramer Elementary School has the following officers and members: Mary Collier, president; Virginia Dorman, vice president; Theldra Bass, secretary; Mary Huffman; song leader; Margie Russell, reporter; Alice Wilma Hood, Minnie Ruth Allen, Gladys Elizabeth Tillery, Emma Dorothy Newman, Lois Pearl Norman, Dorothy Lucile Stephens, Lula Mae Myrick, Mary Frances Amason, Aleberta Mae Mratz, June Farmer, Louise Norman.

A meeting will be held at Ramer High School Thursday night for the purposes of organizing a Parent-Teacher Association. Mrs. G.L. Cherry, Mrs. N.J. Cowles and Mrs. C.P. Cosby will be in the nature of an entertainment with nominal admission, and all who attend will be charter members.

Pinedale Civic Club will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James McInnis on the Virginia Loop. Miss Ethel Bond, of Troy, will be guest speaker. Representatives from other home demonstration clubs of the county will be special guests.

October 29, 1934

By Mildred S. Smith

The monthly leadership school for home demonstration club leaders of the county will be held Nov. 5 at the Administration Building of the Department of Education on South Lawrence Street. Miss Nell Pickens, of the Alabama Extension Service, will give the third lesson in a series on "Art in the Home."

A dramatic club has been organized at Montgomery County High School with officers as follows: President, Julia Bishop; vice president, Loretta Kennick; secretary, Bannie Dillard; treasurer, Jessie McNeill. The club held a meeting Wednesday when an original play, "Mr. Doc Owens," was read by Clora Ella Paulk. Plans were made for the presentation of the play at an early date and characters were selected.

Mrs. J.K. McClurkin was hostess to the Pike Road Civic Club at the monthly meeting Wednesday. Preceding the regular lesson on home improvements, a business session was held with Mrs. G.B. Fannin presiding. Mrs. Sellers Davis, secretary, and Mrs. Josh Gillespie, treasurer, gave reports. Mrs. Fannin and Mrs. Gillespie were elected delegates to the meeting of the Fifth District Federation of Women's Clubs, which will be held in Greenville Tuesday. Mrs. G.T. Brown, club director, gave the leadership lesson. Sixteen members and five visitors were present.

A physical education club has been organized at Montgomery County High School with officers as follows: Loris McLeod, president; Jessie Martha Gibson, vice president; Orin McLeod, secretary, Grace Dean, treasurer. The following committee will arrange the entertainment program for the first meeting in November: Orin McLeod, Myrtle House and Jimmie Houlton.

The Science Club of Montgomery County High School met Wednesday and held a program under the direction of Enoch Rawls and Louis Nunnelee. An experiment was made showing the withdrawals of certain substances from different metals. A discussion was held concerning the exploration of the ocean and stratosphere. Officers of the club are: President, Roland Anderson; vice president, David Rawls; program chairman, Enoch Rawls.

Quarterly conference was held at Macedonia Protestant Methodist Church Oct. 20.

The fourth quarterly conference of Ramer charge will be held at Rehoboth Saturday. Reports will be heard from the following churches: Ramer, Hill's Chapel, Pine Level and Rehoboth.

Rental payment checks in the cotton acreage reduction plan amounting to approximately $22,000 will be delivered to Montgomery County farmers Monday. Checks will be delivered to the following places: Pinedale, McGehee's Switch Pintlala, Paulk's Store, Mamie, Pine Level, Dublin, LaPine, Ramer, Fleta, Pike Road, Chisholm, Ree's Crossing, Mitylene, Mt. Meigs, Snowdown.

Etta B. Smith Chapter No 290 Order of Eastern Star will have a quilting Nov. 8 at the Ramer Masonic Hall. Members will spend a day. A picnic lunch will be served at noon.

The home economics classes of Montgomery County High School gave a tea Thursday afternoon for parents of the members. Halloween decorations were used. Miss Hall, teacher of vocational home economics was in charge.

The Ramer Epworth League had a Halloween party Friday night at the church.

Mrs. J.E. Morriss, president of the Ramer Baptist W.M.S. Mrs. S.U. Turnipseed, president of the Ramer Methodist W.M.S. Mrs. J.E. Felton, vice president, and the Rev. W.O. Calhoun, pastor, attended the inner-racial meeting at Old Ship Church in Montgomery Friday.

The Round Table Club of Grady met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E.F. Wingard, Mrs. C.D. Keener presided. Members responded to roll call with a Bible verse. Taking part on the program were Mrs. C.W. Collier, who gave a sketch of Paul's missionary journey and Mrs. G. L. Harris, who gave a synopsis of the Book of Ruth. A social program was arranged by the hostess.

Ramer High School football team will play Hayneville High School at Hayneville Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday, office; Tuesday and Wednesday, special work; Thursday, Catoma 4-H Club; Friday, Pintlala 4-H Club; Saturday, office and curb market.

A Parent-Teacher Association was organized at Ramer Thursday night with officers as follows: Mrs. H.V. Bell, president; R.F. Cowles, vice president; Miss Mary Virginia Elgin, secretary; M.B. Rushton, treasurer. The following committee chairmen were appointed by the president: Program committee, Mrs. A.D. Cowles; hospitality, Mrs. J.E. Morriss; membership, Mrs. W.W. Sellers; publicity, Mildred Smith; song leader, Miss Helen Thompson; pianist, Miss Hermione Little, Mrs. C.K. McLaney, Mrs. W.W. Payne and Mrs. G.L. Cherry were appointed to write the bylaws. Meetings will be held on Thursday night after the third Sunday in each month. In connection with the organization meeting, a program of entertainment was held under the direction of Miss Asenath Rawlinson, Miss Hermione Little and Miss Kathleen Cowles of the faculty. Selections were given by the glee clubs; Derrell Carter gave a negro dance and Frances Miller gave a dialect reading. A group of girls from the fourth grade presented a costume dance and the F.F.A. band played several selections.

The Ramer Baptist W.M.S. was represented at the quarterly meeting of the W.M.U. Associational in Lapine by following members: Mesdames A D. Cowles, R.F. Cowles, Julia Carter, Eula Collier, Mark Kennick, H.H. Bass, Nancy Rushton, J.D. Turnipseed, S. U. Turnipseed, J.E. Felton, J.E. Morriss, G.L. Cherry, J.W. Dunford and M.B. Rushton and Miss Margaret Waller.

Members of the Senior class in home economics at Ramer High School held a spend-the-night party at the school Wednesday night.

The graduating class of Montgomery County High School has chosen the following officers: James Horace Sellers, president; Sara Webster vice president, Carolyn Collier, secretary; Hilda Reynolds, treasurer.

The Ramer Civic Club has chosen its hostesses as follows for the year: November: Mrs. S.U. Turnipseed, Mrs. M.C. Story, Mrs. Julia Carter, Miss Mayme Carter, Mrs. P.H. Harris; January; Mrs. T.W. Collier, Mrs. D.E. Collier, Mrs. Lily Brooks; February: Mrs. J.H. Felton, Miss Guinndolyn Felton, Mrs. J.H. Conally; March: Mrs. R.F. Cowles, Mrs. N.J. Cowles; April; Mrs. W.G. Sellers, Mrs. M.B. Rushton, Mrs. W. D. Smith, May: Mrs. A. D. Cowles, Mrs. J.H. Milligan; June; Mrs. J.W. Sellers, Mrs. J.C. Sellers; July: annual county rally; August; spend-the -day party at the Armory; September; Mrs. Napoleon Trotter, Mrs. J.B. Trotter, Mrs. H.H. Bass.

November 19, 1934
By Mildred S. Smith

The W.M.S. of LaPine Baptist Church will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clarice Mitchell.

Rev. B.I. H. Huguen, pastor of LaPine Methodist Church, will go to Pensacola this week to attend the Alabama Methodist Conference, which opens there Wednesday.

Lem A. Edmonson, county farm agent, and Mrs. Mamie C. Thompson, county home demonstration agent, will go to Auburn Thursday to attend a special meeting for county agents of this State. The meeting will be in session Thursday and Friday.

The LeGrand Woman's Club was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Maggie Sankey. Special features of the meeting were a report on the exhibit of Italian paintings at Womans College and the extension lesson in home improvement. Mrs. Jesse Reynolds presided.

The Snowdoun Woman's Club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Jim Cutts. A lesson was given on decorative objects in the home, the lesson being illustrated with a collection of such objects from the Alabama Extension Service. Chairmen were appointed for the objectives of citizenship, scholarship and spread of information concerning the Farm Bureau and cooperative marketing.

The Pine Level 4-H Club met Thursday morning at the school. Demonstrations were given in posture and exercises which develop correct posture. Demonstrations were also given in the care of hands and nails. Edith Harwell presided.

The Catoma Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor a womanless wedding at the school Friday night. A nominal admission charge will be made.

A meeting of the board of directors of the County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs was held Monday morning. Mrs. L.C. Curry, president, was in the chair. The object of the meeting was to discuss and make plans for future development of the three objectives decided upon by the State Council of Home Demonstration Clubs, namely citizenship, scholarship and the spread of information concerning the Farm Bureau and cooperative marketing. Mrs. C.L. Chenault, of the Stones Woman's Club, was appointed chairman of the first of these objectives: Mrs. James McInnis, of Pinedale Woman's Club, chairman of the second objective, and Mrs. Roy Glass, of Snowdoun, chairman of the third objective. Each club was urged to appoint a local chairman of each of these objectives. The work of each office was outlined to the committee.

Meetings of the Hope Hull Woman's Club in December will be held on the first and third Thursday's instead of the usual dates.

Approximately 30 club directors were present Monday at the monthly leadership school. Miss Neil Pickens of the Alabama Extension service gave a lesson on decorative objects for the home, illustration her talk with a special collection of such objects. This collection has been left with the county agent to be used at the individual club meetings in the presentation of the extension lesson.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Wingard entertained at a family reunion at their home in the Center Point neighborhood on Nov. 11, which assembled the following members: Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wingard and children, Maxine Walton, Voncile Samuel and Fontelle of Grady. Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Wingard, of Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Wingard and children, George Thomas Jr., John Calvin and Martha of Center Point, W. M. Wingard and children, Georgia William, Loraine, Ronald and Frank Burt of Ramer; Dr. Sam Wingard of Blacksburg, Va., Mr. and Mrs. C.C. King and children, Mary Louise, Eva Mae, George Clayton and Gladys of Lewisburg, Mr. and Mrs. James Coleman Wingard and children, Eloise, Evelyn, Jamie, Malinda, Ruby and Marquis Moore of Center Point; Seals Menefee, Jack Smilie Wingard, Mr. and Mrs. Murray B. Wingard and children, Carrie Mae and Betty June, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wingard, of Center Point, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Wingard were married July 15, 1891 reared 13 children 10 of whom are living. There are 36 grandchildren and five great grandchildren making a total of 51 direct descendants.

Lamar Smilie was winner of a cash prize of $2.50 in recent contest conducted by the Ramer Chapter F.F.A. in cooperation with the educational bureau of the Children Nitrate Corporation.

The Ramer Dramatic Club met recently, a program being given by Bannie Dillard, assisted by Loretta Kennick, John Ramsey Story, Margaret Barnett and Carolyn Collier. Three short plays, "The Plumber," "The History Lesson," and "The Station Episode," were given and criticized by the club members.

The Physical Education Club of Ramer High School met recently and made plans for a Christmas party. An entertainment committee was appointed as follows for the next meeting Vera Garner, Lillie Pearl Hassey, Evelyn Gibson and Voncile Wingard.

The Ramer Science Club held its regular meeting Wednesday, a program being given with the aid of scientific clippings from newspapers. Lewis Nunnelee made a talk about radio waves. An experiment was made showing the reaction of water upon sodium.

Members of the senior three class of Pike Road High School presented the assembly Monday. The following numbers were given: Group songs by the audience; devotional, Neil Cantey, one-act play, "Father Goes On A Diet," with the following characters: Albert Lawson, Carolyn Cantey, Woodrow Johnson, Gladys, Maddox, Martha Laurie McLendon, Mary Ella Kennington, Warren Meriwether. A report on the act exhibits in Montgomery was given by several students.

A visit to the art exhibits in Montgomery and to the State Capital and the White House of the Confederacy was made by the senior one and senior three classes of Pike Road High School under the supervision of Miss Gladys McNeil, senior class adviser. The junior two class also visited these points of interest under the supervision of their class adviser, Miss Annie Williams.

The Pine Level B.Y.P.U. was entertained at a possum hunt Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wingard. After the hunt, marshmallows were roasted at a bonfire and nuts and fruits were served. Those attending were Misses Alice Jewel Townsend, Mary Frances Guice, Lela McGhee, Edna McCormick, Lillian Alford, Mrs. Martha Wingard, Solomon Johnson, Kyle, Paul, Elwyn McGhee, John William Stevens, Larue Broxton, Seals Menefee.

The Ramer Parent-Teacher Association will meet at the school Thursday night.

The LaPine Civic Club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. T.L. Dennis, Mrs. H.H. Spear and Mrs. Manford McRee, hostesses.

Mrs. W.C. Naftel, of Naftel, was winner of first prize for the best exhibit of preserves and jellies at the State Fair. Mrs. Josh Gillespie, of Pike Road, was winner of first prize for the best display of canned fruit and vegetables.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday, office; Tuesday, LaPine Civic Club; Wednesday, Pike Road Civic Club; Thursday and Friday, Auburn; Saturday, office and curb market.

The Pinedale Civic Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. I.E. Kendrick, with Mrs. James McInnis presiding, with Mrs. James McInnis presiding, Mrs. Cecil Eagerton, Jr., gave a talk on decorative objects in the home, illustrating with a special collection loaned by the extension service.

November 26, 1934
By Mildred S. Smith

The LaPine Music Study Club was entertained Wednesday by Mrs. W.F. Spear, Mrs. C.J. Champion, Mrs. J.P. Buff and Mrs. H.H. Spear at the Baptist Church. A program on church music was directed by Mrs. W.F. Spear. The program dealt with church music in three forms, early American music, the oratorio, and the mass. Sketches of these classes of music were given by Mrs. Ruben Ruff, Mrs. John Gann and Mrs. Lyman Bradley respectively. Others assisting with the program were a choir, who sang "Art Thou Weary" (Baker), representing early American music; and "Ye Sons and Daughters," "Jesus, Food of Angels," and a chant, "The Lord's Prayer," representing the mass; and Mrs. Manford McRee, who gave a vocal solo, "I know That My Redeemer Liveth" (Handel), representing the oratorio. Special numbers were a piano solo, transcription of "The Rosary" (Nevin) by Mrs. A.E. Bradley and a vocal solo, "Ave Maris," by Mrs. W.F. Spear. The church was decorated with Autumn flowers and lighted tapers. Sandwiches and coffee were served.

Mrs. P.H. Connell has been appointed treasurer of the LaPine Music Study Club to fill a vacancy left by the resignation of Miss Annie Lou Spear, who is now in Montgomery.

A music school has been organized in LaPine by Mrs. A.E. Bradley, formerly of Montgomery. Classes are being held in piano and in music appreciation, and members of the class are being especially trained for public appearance. Mrs. Bradley was a student of music at Womans College, studying with Anthony Stankovitch and Wilhelm Nordin.

The Ramer Civic Club will meet on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. S.U. Turnipseed, Mrs. M.C. Story and F.H. Stephens as hostesses. Mrs. J. C. Sellers will be music director and the extension lesson will be given by the club directors. Response to roll call will be current events.

The Chesser Community Club will meet Wednesday afternoon.

Schools of the county will be closed Thursday and Friday for the annual Thanksgiving holidays.

The Pinedale Civic Club will meet on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. Ptomey as hostess and Mrs. G. O. Jones as director. Roll call will be answered with a modern leader in Alabama. The subject for study will be "Mountaineers of Alabama."

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday, office; Tuesday, Ramer Civic Club; Wednesday, Chesser Community Club; Thursday, Thanksgiving (holiday); Friday, special work in county; Saturday, office and curb market.

The regular monthly extension lesson for home demonstration club leaders will be held Dec. 3 at the Administration Building of the Department of Education on South Lawrence Street.

The Pinedale Civic Club will sponsor a special Thanksgiving program at Pinedale chapel on Thanksgiving Day.

Members of the Eastern Star of Ramer will have a turkey supper Wednesday night following the regular semi-monthly meeting. Officers of this chapter are: Mrs. Abbie Rue Anderson, worthy matron, G.C. McDowell, worthy patron; Mrs. Mattie Brooks, associate matron; Roger Daniel, associate patron; Mrs. Newtie Daniel, associate patron; Mrs. Newtie Rushton, secretary; Mrs. Eula Collier, treasurer; Mrs. Martha Benbow, conductress; Mrs. Lucy Daniel, associate conductress; Mrs. Lily Brooks, chaplain; Mrs. Lula Harris, marshal; Mrs. Nellie McDowell, Adah; Mrs. Maggie Cherry, Ruth; Mrs. Lillian Collier, Esther; Mrs. Lucile Bigger, Martha; Mrs. Vesta Adams, Electa; Mrs. Lillie Weaver, warder; C.M. Brooks, sentinel.

The Friendship Community Club will have a Thanksgiving meeting Thursday night at Sullivan's Lake.

The Pike Road Junior and Senior 4-H clubs will meet at the school on Dec. 4. Mildred Brown Davis will preside at the junior meeting and Carolyn Cantey at the senior meeting.

The Ramer Senior and Elementary 4-H clubs will meet at their respective schools on Dec. 5. Clara Ella Paulk will preside at the senior meeting and Mary Annie Collier at the elementary club meeting.

The Catoma Junior 4-H club will meet at the school on Dec. 6. Ida Grace Christian, president, will be in the chair.

The Pintlala Junior 4-H club will meet at the school Dec. 7 with Eleanor Chesnutt presiding.

The Hope Hull Senior Woman's Club will meet Dec. 6 instead of the usual date.

A program on Robert Schumann is being prepared by Mrs. W. Theo Webster for presentation to the LaPine Music Study Club on Dec. 12. Assisting Mrs. Webster will be Mrs. Edward Webster, Mrs. Velma Grissett, Mrs. Esther Webster and Mrs. F.A. Champion. The club announces as one of its objectives this year the purchase of text books to be added to the club's present collection of books and music.

Newly-elected officers of the Round Table Club of Grady are: Mrs. W.M. Mills, president; Mrs. A.L. Bigger, Jr., vice-president; Mrs. Glenn Tucker, secretary; Mrs. T.S. Skipper, treasurer. The club will hold a meeting Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Mills as hostess. An Alabama program will be given. Roll call will be answered with current events concerning news in Alabama. Mrs. M.M. Tucker will talk on "The Birth of Alabama" and Mrs. Mills will talk on "Statesmen Alabama Has Given to the Nation."

December 10, 1934

By Mildred S. Smith

The Woman's Missionary Society of Ramer Baptist Church observed the annual week of prayer for foreign missions the past week. Leaders were Mrs. G. L. Cherry, Mrs. J.W. Dunford, Mrs. C.M. Brooks, Mrs. J.E. Morriss, and Mrs. M.H. Kennick. On Tuesday Mrs. C.P. Cosby and Mrs. M.H. Kennick were hostesses at the monthly royal service meeting held at the church in connection with the prayer service. On Wednesday an interracial program was observed when members of the colored church society were present and special music was furnished by them. Two members gave vocal solos and a group of children from the colored school sang several spirituals. The contributions given during the week will be applied to annual Lottie Moon Christmas offering.

A community Christmas program will be given at the Baptist Church of Ramer on the night of Dec. 16 when a pageant, "The Shepherd of Bethlehem," will be presented. Misses Mary Virginia Elgin and Frances Porter, of the high school faculty, are directors of the pageant. Mrs. N.J. Cowles and Mrs. J.E. Morris are in charge of the stage settings. Characters cast in the pageant are: Elbrid Dillard, Mrs. Byrtram Trotter, Mary Cowles, Sara Emily Cowles, Mary Emma Sellers, David Rawls, Jack Stephens, Prof. P.H. Harris, Edward Sellers, Byrtram Trotter, John Dowling Turnipseed, Mrs. W.D. Smith and G.C. McDowell.

The LaPine Music Study Club will meet Wednesday afternoon. A program on the composer, Robert Schumann, will be presented under the direction of Mrs. W.T. Webster. Assistant hostesses with Mrs. Webster will be Mesdames Edward Webster, Velma Grissett, Esther Webster and Fletcher A. Champion.

Eggs sold on the curb market during November brought a total of $1,087.80 to sellers from the county. A total of 3,108 dozen eggs was sold at an average price of 35 cents a dozen.

The Pinedale Civic Club will hold its monthly demonstration meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Shelburne as hostess. The demonstration lesson in "Proper Lighting in the Home" will be given by the club leaders. Plans for a Christmas party at the Pinedale Chapel will be completed. Mrs. James McInnis will preside.

The Ramer Parent- Teacher Association will meet in the high school auditorium Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. W.V. Bell, president, will be in the chair. Miss Eunice Ward, of Montgomery, county health nurse will be guest speaker, her subject to be the work being done in the county to protect the health of the school children. Miss Beunah Mae Sellers will be in charge of an entertainment program. Misses Helen Thompson and Hermione Little will direct a program of music. Refreshment will be served. All patrons of the school are urged to attend.

Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will have the following itinerary this week: Monday, office; Tuesday, Pinedale Civic Club, Wednesday, Snowdown Woman's Club; Thursday, Sellers Civic Club; Friday, special work in county; Saturday, office and curb market.

The Grady Round Table Club will hold its annual Christmas party on the afternoon of Dec. 19 at the home of the retiring president, Mrs. C.D. Keener. New officers who will assume duties at this time are: Mrs. W.W. Mills, president; Mrs. A.L. Bigger, vice-president; Mrs. G.B. Tucker, secretary; Mrs. T.E. Skipper, treasurer.

Plans for a Christmas party have been made by the girl's physical education club of Montgomery County High School. A Christmas tree will be held at the next regular meeting of the club on Dec. 18.

December 24, 1934
By Mildred S. Smith

The Mt. Zion B.Y.P.U. will have a Christmas social and tree at the church Monday night.

Newly- elected officers of the Pine Level Baptist W.M. S. are: Mrs. J.M. Townsend, president; Mrs. Ray C. Guice, vice-president; Mrs. W.B. Parker, secretary; Mrs. Eunice McGhee, treasurer.

Mrs. Julia Carter, assisted by Mrs. P.H. Harris and Miss Mayme Carter, entertained the Ramer Civic Club Monday afternoon. Response to roll call was made an observance of Alabama Day. Plans were outlined for each club member to have an outdoor Christmas tree, and Mrs. S.U. Turnipseed was appointed chairman by the president, Mrs. J.W. Sellers. A talk on lighting the home was given by the county agent. Later the hostesses entertained at a Christmas tea and gifts for all the members were presented from a tree.

The Chesser Community Club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edwin Alsobrook. Miss Helen Amason will preside.

A pageant "The Christmas Truant" will be presented at the Methodist Protestant Church in Mt. Carmel Community Sunday night. Mrs. W.W. Sellers will be chairman and those in the cast will include: Aileen Williams, Zelma Guy, Hannah Mae Bozeman, Charles Williams, William Walter Sellers, Dorothy McCall and Mertle Nolan. A group of young people from the community will sing Christmas carols. Miss Marjorie Cherry of Ramer will be accompanist.

The Glee Club of Montgomery County High School was entertained Thursday night at an informal party at the Teachers Home by Miss Hermione Little. Later, the group sang Christmas carols at homes in Ramer.

The LaPine Civic Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W.T. Webster with Mrs. Mamie Stough assistant hostess. An interesting lesson in home lighting was given by Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington. During a social hour, gifts were presented from a Christmas tree to those in attendance.

The LaPine P.T.A. presented a play "The District School" at the local school auditorium Friday night. Funds received will be used for the school improvement funds.

Mrs. Joe Scalfe entertained the Sellers Civic Club at the clubhouse Thursday afternoon. Following a short business session a demonstration lesson in lighting the home was given by the club leaders. The annual club Christmas tree was a feature of the social hour.

Plans are being made by the Sellers Civic Club to have a fiddles convention at an early date funds to be used to buy material for a new roof for the clubhouse.

The Pinedale Civic Club was entertained at its monthly demonstration meeting Tuesday with Mrs. Shelburne as hostess. During a business session, plans were made for Christmas activities including a "White Christmas service" a Christmas community party and help for two needy families. Mrs. W.H. Kendrick and Mrs. Herndon were appointed to membership on the citizenship committee. Mrs. C.O. Jones gave a demonstration in home lighting. Refreshments in the Yuletide motif were served.

A Christmas playlet was given at the chapel hour at Montgomery County High School Friday morning under the direction of Miss Frances Porter.

Mrs. O.C. Sharpe entertained members of the LeGrand Civic Club Friday afternoon. Following a demonstration lesson, given by the county home demonstration agent, Mrs. Sharpe entertained the members at a Christmas tea.

The members of Pinedale Civic Club will have a spend-the-day party at the home of Mrs. Spivey on Wednesday.

Instead of observing the usual itinerary, Mrs. Mamie C. Thorington, county home demonstration agent, will meet only the Chesser Community Club this week. The meeting will be on Wednesday afternoon.

The young people of Pinedale will sing carols at the home in the community Monday night.

The monthly leadership school of the home demonstration clubs of the county will be held Jan 7. Miss Neil Pickens of the Extension Service will be in charge.

A community party will be held Friday night at Pinedale Chapel Mrs. James Stoner is general chairman.

The Round Table Club of Grady held its Christmas party Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C.D. Keener, retiring president. Gifts were presented from a tree to the members. The new officers were introduced as follows: Mrs. W.M. Mills, president; Mrs. A.L. Bigger, vice-president; Mrs. Glenn Tucker, secretary; Mrs. T.S. Skipper, treasurer.